Under the Euro Medium Term Note Programme described in this Base Prospectus (the "Programme"), Dometic Group AB (publ) (the "Issuer" or "Dometic"), subject to compliance with all relevant laws, regulations and directives, may from time to time issue Euro Medium Term Notes (the "Notes"). The aggregate nominal amount of Notes outstanding will not at any time exceed €1,500,000,000 (or the equivalent in other currencies).

This Base Prospectus has been approved by the Central Bank of Ireland as competent authority under Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 (the "Prospectus Regulation"). The Central Bank of Ireland only approves this Base Prospectus as meeting the standards of completeness, comprehensibility and consistency imposed by the Prospectus Regulation. Such approval should not be considered as an endorsement of either the Issuer or the quality of the Notes that are the subject of this Base Prospectus and investors should make their own assessment as to the suitability of investing in the Notes. Such approval relates only to the Notes which are to be admitted to trading on a regulated market for the purposes of Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended or superseded, "EU MiFID II") or which are to be offered to the public in any Member State of the European Economic Area (the "EEA"). Application will be made to the Irish Stock Exchange Plc trading as Euronext Dublin (the "Euronext Dublin") for Notes issued under the Programme during the period of 12 months from the date of this Base Prospectus to be admitted to the official list (the "Official List") and trading on its regulated market (the "Regulated Market"). This prospectus constitutes a "Base Prospectus" for the purpose of the Prospectus Regulation. References in this Base Prospectus to the Notes being "listed" (and all related references) shall mean that the Notes have been admitted to the Official List and have been admitted to trading on the Regulated Market of Euronext Dublin. The relevant Final Terms in respect of the issue of any Notes will specify whether or not such Notes will be listed on the Official List and admitted to trading on the regulated market of Euronext Dublin.

Notice of the aggregate nominal amount of Notes, interest (if any) payable in respect of Notes, the issue price of Notes and any other terms and conditions not contained herein which are applicable to each Tranche (as defined under "Terms and Conditions of the Notes" and collectively, the "Conditions") of Notes will be set forth in a Final Terms document ("Final Terms"). Each Final Terms, with respect to Notes to be listed on Euronext Dublin, will be delivered to the Central Bank of Ireland and Euronext Dublin. Each Series (as defined in "Overview of the Programme – Method of Issue") of Notes in bearer form will be represented on issue by a temporary global note in bearer form (each a "temporary Global Note") or a permanent global note in bearer form (each a "permanent Global Note") and, together with the temporary Global Note, the "Global Notes"). If the Global Notes are stated in the applicable Final Terms to be issued in new global note ("NGN") form, the Global Notes will be delivered on or prior to the original issue date of the relevant Tranche to a common safekeeper (the "Common Safekeeper") for Euroclear Bank SA/NV ("Euroclear") and Clearstream Banking S.A. ("Clearstream, Luxembourg"). Notes in registered form will be represented by registered certificates (each a "Certificate"), one Certificate being issued in respect of each Noteholder's entire holding of Registered Notes of one Series. Registered Notes issued in global form will be represented by registered global certificates ("Global Certificates"). If a Global Certificate is held under the New Safekeeping Structure (the "NSS") the Global Certificate will be delivered on or prior to the original issue date of the relevant Tranche to a Common Safekeeper for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Global Notes which are not issued in NGN form ("Classic Global Notes" or "CGNs") and Global Certificates which are not held under the NSS will be deposited on the issue date of the relevant Tranche with a common depositary on behalf of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg (the "Common Depositary"). The provisions governing the exchange of interests in Global Notes for other Global Notes and definitive Notes are described in "Summary of Provisions Relating to the Notes while in Global Form".

Tranches of Notes may be rated or unrated. A rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency. Whether or not each credit rating applied for in relation to the relevant Series of Notes will be issued by a credit rating agency established in the European Union and registered under Regulation (EC) No 1060/2009, as amended (the "EU CRA Regulation") will be disclosed in the Final Terms. In general, European regulated investors are restricted from using a rating for regulatory purposes if such rating is not issued by a credit rating agency established in the European Union and registered under the EU CRA Regulation (or is endorsed and published or distributed by subscription by such a credit rating agency in accordance with the EU CRA Regulation). In general, Investors regulated in the UK are restricted from using a rating for regulatory purposes if such rating is not issued by a credit rating agency established in the UK and registered under the Regulation (EC) No.1060/2009 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 ("EUWA") (the "UK CRA Regulation") or (1) the rating is provided by a credit rating agency not established in the UK but is endorsed by a credit rating agency established in the UK and registered under the UK CRA Regulation or (2) the rating is provided by a credit rating agency not established in the UK which is certified under the UK CRA Regulation. A security rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, revision or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency.

Amounts payable under some of the Notes may be calculated by reference to the Euro Interbank Offered Rate ("EURIBOR") or the Stockholm Interbank Offered Rate ("STIBOR"), which are provided by the European Money Markets Institute ("EMMI") and the Swedish Financial Benchmark Facility AB ("SFB"), respectively. As at the date of this Base Prospectus, each of EMMI and SFB appears on the register of administrators and benchmarks established and maintained by the European Securities and Markets Authority ("ESMA") pursuant to Article 36 of the Benchmark Regulation (Regulation (EU) 2016/1011) (as amended or supplemented, the "Benchmark Regulation"). Prospective investors should have regard to the factors described under the section headed "Risk Factors" in this Base Prospectus.

This Prospectus will be valid as a base prospectus under the Prospectus Regulation for 12 months from its date. The obligation to supplement this Prospectus in the event of significant new factors, material mistakes or material inaccuracies will not apply following the expiry of that period.

This Base Prospectus comprises a base prospectus for the purposes of the Prospectus Regulation.

The Issuer (the "Responsible Person") accepts responsibility for the information contained in this Base Prospectus. To the best of the knowledge of the Issuer the information contained in this Base Prospectus is in accordance with the facts and makes no omission likely to affect the import of such information.

This Base Prospectus is to be read in conjunction with all documents which are incorporated herein by reference (see "Documents Incorporated by Reference").

No person is or has been authorised to give any information or to make any representation other than those contained in this Base Prospectus or in connection with the issue or sale of the Notes and, if given or made, such information or representation must not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Issuer, the Trustee, any of the Agents or any of the Dealers or the Arranger (as defined in "Overview of the Programme"). Neither the delivery of this Base Prospectus nor any sale made in connection herewith shall, under any circumstances, create any implication that there has been no change in the affairs of the Issuer since the date hereof or the date upon which this Base Prospectus has been most recently amended or supplemented or that there has been no adverse change in the financial position of the Issuer since the date hereof or the date upon which this Base Prospectus has been most recently amended or supplemented or that any other information supplied in connection with the Programme is correct as of any time subsequent to the date on which it is supplied or, if different, the date indicated in the document containing the same.

Neither the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates have authorised the whole or any part of this Base Prospectus and none of them makes any representation or warranty or accepts any responsibility as to the accuracy or completeness of the information contained in this Base Prospectus or any responsibility for any acts or omissions of the Issuer or any other person (other than the relevant Dealer) in connection with any issue and offering of the Notes under the Programme.

In the case of any Notes which are to be admitted to trading on a regulated market within the European Economic Area or a Member State of the European Economic Area in circumstances which require the publication of a prospectus under the Prospectus Regulation, the minimum specified denomination shall be €100,000 (or its equivalent in any other currency as at the date of issue of the Notes). Subject thereto, Notes will be issued in such denominations as may be specified in the relevant Final Terms, subject to compliance with all applicable legal and/or regulatory requirements.

The distribution of this Base Prospectus and the offering or sale of the Notes in certain jurisdictions may be restricted by law. Persons into whose possession this Base Prospectus comes are required by the Issuer, the Dealers and the Arranger to inform themselves about and to observe any such restriction.

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") or with any securities regulatory authority of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States and Notes in bearer form are subject to U.S. tax law requirements. Subject to certain exceptions, Notes may not be offered, sold or (in the case of Notes in bearer form) delivered within the United States or to U.S. persons (as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act ("Regulation S")). For a description of certain restrictions on offers and sales of Notes and on distribution of this Base Prospectus, see "Subscription and Sale".

This Base Prospectus does not constitute an offer of, or an invitation by or on behalf of the Issuer or the Dealers to subscribe for, or purchase, any Notes.

EU MIFID II product governance / target market – The Final Terms in respect of any Notes will include a legend entitled "EU MiFID II Product Governance" which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a "distributor") should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, "EU MiFID II") is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the EU MiFID Product Governance rules under EU Delegated Directive 2017/593 (the "EU MiFID Product Governance Rules"), any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither the Arranger nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the EU MiFID Product Governance Rules.

UK MiFIR PRODUCT GOVERNANCE / PROFESSIONAL INVESTORS AND ECPS ONLY TARGET MARKET – The Final Terms in respect of any Notes will include a legend entitled "UK MiFIR Product Governance" which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any distributor should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to the FCA Handbook Product Intervention and Product Governance Sourcebook (the "UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules") is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules, any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither the Arranger nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules.

IMPORTANT – PROHIBITION OF SALES TO EEA RETAIL INVESTORS – If the Final Terms in respect of any Notes includes a legend entitled "Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors", the Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the EEA. For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of EU MiFID II; or (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/97 (as amended or superseded, the "Insurance Distribution Directive") where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of EU MiFID II. Consequently, no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (as amended the "PRIIPs Regulation") for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.

PROHIBITION OF SALES TO UK RETAIL INVESTORS – If the Final Terms in respect of any Notes includes a legend entitled "Prohibition of Sales to UK Retail Investors", the Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the UK. For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (8) of Article 2 of Regulation (EU) No 2017/565 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA; or (ii) a customer within the meaning of the provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (the "FSMA") and any rules or regulations made under the FSMA to implement Directive (EU) 2016/97, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA. Consequently, no key information document required by the PRIIPs Regulation as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (the "UK PRIIPs Regulation") for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the UK has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the UK may be unlawful under the UK PRIIPs Regulation.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, none of the Dealers, the Arranger, the Agents or the Trustee accept any responsibility for the contents of this Base Prospectus or for any other statement, made or purported to be made by the Arranger, a Dealer, the Agents or the Trustee or on its behalf in connection with the Issuer on the issue and offering of the Notes. The Arranger, each Dealer, the Agents and the Trustee accordingly disclaim all and any liability whether arising in tort or contract or otherwise (save as referred to above) which it might otherwise have in respect of this Base Prospectus or any such statement. Neither this Base Prospectus nor any other financial statements are intended to provide the basis of any credit or other evaluation and should not be considered as a recommendation by any of the Issuer, the Arranger, the Dealers, the Agents or the Trustee that any recipient of this Base Prospectus or any other financial statements should purchase the Notes. Each potential purchaser of Notes should determine for itself the relevance of the information contained in this Base Prospectus and its purchase of Notes should be based upon such investigation as it deems necessary. None of the Dealers, the Arranger, the Agents or the Trustee undertakes to review the financial condition or affairs of the Issuer during the life of the arrangements contemplated by this Base Prospectus nor to advise any investor or potential investor in the Notes of any information coming to the attention of any of the Dealers, the Arranger, the Agents or the Trustee.

In connection with the issue of any Tranche (as defined in "Overview of the Programme – Method of Issue"), the Dealer or Dealers (if any) named as the stabilisation manager(s) (the "Stabilisation Manager(s)") (or any person acting on behalf of any Stabilisation Manager(s)) in the applicable Final Terms may over-allot Notes or effect transactions with a view to supporting the market price of the Notes at a level higher than that which might otherwise prevail. However, stabilisation may not occur. Any stabilisation action may begin on or after the date on which adequate public disclosure of the terms of the offer of the relevant Tranche is made and, if begun, may cease at any time, but it must end no later than the earlier of 30 days after the issue date of the relevant Tranche and 60 days after the date of the allotment of the relevant Tranche. Any stabilisation action or over-allotment must be conducted by the relevant Stabilisation Manager(s) (or any person acting on behalf of any Stabilisation Manager(s)) in accordance with all applicable laws and rules.

All statements other than statements of historical fact included in this Base Prospectus, including, without limitation, those regarding the financial position, business strategy, management plans and objectives for future operations of Dometic are forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors, which may cause Dometic's actual results, performance or achievements, or industry results, to be materially different from those expressed or implied by these forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are based on numerous assumptions regarding the Dometic's present and future business strategies and the environment in which it expects to operate in the future. Important factors that could cause their actual results, performance or achievements to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include, among other factors described in this Base Prospectus:

- the ability of Dometic to renew contracts with key customers;
- changes in technology;

- the ability of Dometic to retain or replace key personnel; and
- changes in Dometic's business strategy, development and investment plans.

Additional factors that could cause actual results, performance or achievements to differ materially include, but are not limited to, those discussed under "Risk Factors". Any forward-looking statements made by or on behalf of Dometic speak only as at the date they are made. Certain figures included in this Base Prospectus have been subject to rounding adjustments; accordingly, figures shown for the same category presented in different tables may vary slightly and figures shown as totals in certain tables may not be an arithmetic aggregation of the figures which precede them.

The Notes are complex financial instruments and such instruments may be purchased by investors as a way to reduce risk or enhance yield with an understood, measured, appropriate addition of risk to their overall portfolios. Each potential investor in the Notes must determine the suitability of that investment in light of its own circumstances. In particular, each potential investor should:

- (a) have sufficient knowledge and experience to make a meaningful evaluation of the Notes, the merits and risks of investing in the Notes and the information contained in this Base Prospectus or any applicable supplement;
- (b) have access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of its particular financial situation, an investment in the Notes and the impact the Notes will have on its overall investment portfolio;
- (c) have sufficient financial resources and liquidity to bear all of the risks of an investment in the Notes, including where the currency for principal and interest payments is different from the potential investor's currency;
- (d) understand thoroughly the terms of the Notes and be familiar with the behaviour of any relevant financial markets; and
- (e) be able to evaluate (either alone or with the help of a financial adviser) possible scenarios for economic, interest rate and other factors that may affect its investment and its ability to bear the applicable risks.

PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT - If at any time the Issuer shall be required to prepare a prospectus supplement pursuant to Article 23 of the Prospectus Regulation, the Issuer will prepare and make available an appropriate amendment or supplement to this Base Prospectus which, in respect of any subsequent issue of Notes to be listed on the Official List and admitted to trading on the Regulated Market, shall constitute a prospectus supplement as required by Article 23 of the Prospectus Regulation.

Industry and Business-Related Risks

The demand for the Group's products is dependent on macroeconomic conditions, consumer spending and sentiment towards the products

The Group's business is focused on providing products that are used in leisure vehicles (Recreational Vehicles ("RVs") and leisure boats), trucks and premium cars, or used in connection with other outdoor activities. Consumer purchases of these products tend to decline during economic downturns when disposable income is lower. Since the 1970s, major declines in the global financial markets or any challenging conditions in the macroeconomic environment have negatively impacted consumer spending and the Group believes this has adversely affected the sales of its products during such periods. Some of the Group's markets are particularly susceptible to general economic conditions because sales of RVs and leisure boats depend on discretionary consumer spending.

In addition to this, geopolitical events, including the impact of the war in Ukraine, and US trade tariffs and countermeasures as well as any disturbances and sanctions affecting global trade between key economic powers, may impact economies and financial markets in which the Group operates. The current macroeconomic situation brings uncertainty and it is difficult to predict how geopolitical developments or ongoing tariffs discussions in the US may impact operations.

Accordingly, the Group is particularly vulnerable to economic downturns or other adverse events that have a negative effect on consumer confidence in any of the markets in which it operates (whether as a result of actual or perceived economic slowdowns), especially those which have a negative effect on the American and European economies, as Group sales in the US, Canada and Europe accounted for, in aggregate, 90 per cent. of the Group's total net sales for the year ended 31 December 2024 and 91 per cent. for the three months ended 31 March 2025 as compared to 88 per cent. for the year ended 31 December 2023 and 89 per cent. for the three months ended 31 March 2024. Accordingly, an economic downturn or geopolitical events affecting any of the Group's key markets could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Inflation and Interest Rate risks

Economies across Europe and globally have been experiencing significant inflationary pressures. This has been exacerbated by the sanctions put in place as a response to the ongoing war in Ukraine, as well as the ongoing conflict in Israel-Gaza and military operations in the Middle East region more widely, which have further increased energy and fuel prices. Such inflationary pressures are expected to continue and may increase in the medium term. In response to rising inflation, interest rates have increased and may be further increased or maintained at current high levels. Interest rate risk is the risk of the Group's financing costs increasing due to changes in the market interest rate. The Group runs stress test analysis to monitor interest rate risk. Nevertheless, a significant increase in interest rates would increase, and has increased, the cost of funding of the Group and has had an adverse effect on the Group's operations, results and financial position.

Rising inflation may have a direct and indirect impact on customers' ability to purchase and consequently on demand for the Group's products. In addition, inflationary pressures may negatively affect the cost of project developments and operating costs, or acquisitions.

The market for the Group's products is competitive and competitors may be better equipped for competing in the market

The Group operates in many niche markets with different competitors in each business area and region respectively. The Group faces price competition as well as competition in respect of, amongst others, product development, design, quality and service offering. The Group's competitors may be able to succeed in marketing, product development or other innovation, which may result in increased competitive pressures for some of the Group's operations. Several of the Group's competitors focus only on a small range of products and therefore may outpace the Group in developing new or advanced products in their specialised product areas. There is a risk that the Group will need to make costly investments, restructurings or price cuts in order to adapt to a new competitive situation (for example if a competitor enters one of the Group's niche markets with a better product or can produce products at a lower price) which could negatively impact the Group's current margins.

If the Group fails to continue to innovate and provide customers with products to meet their expectations, the Group's competitiveness in the marketplace may be materially adversely affected. If the Group is unable to anticipate consumer preferences, or if the Group is unable to modify its products in line with customer needs, the Group may lose customers or become subject to greater pricing pressures and the Group's operating results may also suffer. Any failure on the Group's part to innovate and design new products or modify existing products may hurt the Group's brands and could result in a decrease of market shares and net sales. There is a risk that the Group will not be able to continue designing products that meet customers' needs in a cost-effective and timely basis, or at all. Furthermore, the Group may not be able to focus on the right projects for innovation, or successfully develop or offer new competitive products.

If the Group does not compete successfully and is unable to continue designing new and competitive products, its share of industry sales, sales volumes and selling prices may be adversely affected, which in turn could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Demand for the Group's products is dependent on consumer demand for underlying products and consumers' attitude towards leisure activity

The sales of the Group's products depend on underlying consumer demand, especially within RV and Marine (the market for leisure boats) for all sales channels. Should consumer costs for fuel increase and then remain at a higher level for an extended period of time, consumer demand in the RV and Marine sectors could decline as a result. Other factors which increase the costs for consumers to operate RVs or boats could also have the effect of reducing consumer demand in these sectors. Demand may increase or decrease significantly as a result of changes in customers' taste and desire for certain products. Customers of the Group's products often consider owning and using an RV to be a lifestyle choice rather than only a specific holiday alternative. Should the Group's customers no longer view owning an RV as a lifestyle, or if customers' attitudes towards the industry become negative for any reason, for example following a major incident causing safety concerns relating to the Group, its products, RVs or leisure activity in general or other scandals affecting one or several of the Group's customers, the Group may experience a decrease in demand. If consumer demand were to decline it could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group's ability to meet demand for its products may be limited by unanticipated shifts in customer demand or delivery failures by the Group's suppliers

Although the Group has flexible manufacturing operations that can respond to surges in demand, even when all of the Group's manufacturing / assembly sites are running at full production, there is a risk that the Group will not be able to satisfy unanticipated, exceptionally high levels of demand, or where there are unexpected supply chain constraints. Also, certain of the Group's products have a high order to delivery lead time of between 45 and 65 days, which inhibits the Group's capacity to respond quickly to changes in customer demand. Further, the Group's ability to meet customer demand may be limited by supply constraints of key materials. The Group's inability to meet customer demand for the Group's products could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

A consolidation trend among OEMs could cause pricing pressure and the loss of major customers which could have a material adverse effect on the business of the Group

In the recent decades there has been gradual consolidation among original equipment manufacturers ("OEMs") across business areas. In particular, there has been increased consolidation among RV OEMs, resulting in more concentrated purchasing power, which leads to pricing pressure on suppliers to OEMs in the Americas segment. There is a risk that the Group may experience increasing price pressure due to consolidation among OEMs, which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group's ten largest customers, the vast majority of which were RV OEM customers, represented 24 per cent. of the Group's total net sales for the year ended 31 December 2024 and 22 per cent. for the three months ended 31 March 2025 (as compared to 25 per cent. for the year ended 31 December 2023 and 22 per cent. for the three months ended 31 March 2024).

Customer concentration is higher in the Americas segment than in EMEA and Asia Pacific ("APAC") segments and the ongoing consolidation trend among OEMs is stronger in the Americas segment. A decision by any of these major customers—whether motivated by competitive conditions, financial difficulties, change of ownership, change of management or otherwise—to significantly decrease the products purchased from the Group, or to change its business relations with the Group, could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. If the consolidation trend continues or increases, there is a risk that any problems related to the loss of one or several customers would be exacerbated.

Volatility and disruption of the capital and credit markets and adverse changes in the global economy may adversely impact the ability of consumers to access financing negatively, which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations

Consumers of the Group's products, especially end-consumers of RVs and leisure boats, generally depend on consumer financing to make large purchases. Volatility and disruption of the capital and credit markets and adverse changes in the United States, European and global economies may negatively impact the end-consumers' ability to access financing, which may have a material adverse effect on the Group's sales, profitability and financial condition. For example, during the global economic and financial downturn which began in 2008, consumers who sought to purchase RVs or leisure boats incorporating the Group's products experienced a significant decline in the availability of financing. The subsequent improvement in the availability of financing from banks and financial providers was a major driver for the recovery in the sales of many of the Group's products, including in the RV business segment. Any disruptions to or a stall in the growth of the financial markets or a decline in the availability of financing, may materially adversely impact the Group's sales. Furthermore, the availability of financing may affect the liquidity of the Group's independent distributors and customers, which could also have a material adverse effect on the Group's sales. The marine business area is susceptible to similar pressures during an economic downturn as many lenders tighten lending to end-consumer financing of marine products and exit the market for marine floorplan financing, which provides credit to dealers and manufacturers. Due to the above, the Group may be especially impacted by the limited availability of credit to consumers. The occurrence or continuation of such market disruptions could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Changes in weather patterns and seasonal weather fluctuations may have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations

A majority of the Group's sales and expenses are affected by higher demand in the summer seasons, with a subsequent drop during autumn starting in August when the year's major season is coming to an end. The revenue pattern applies in Australia but during another part of the year given the country's position in the southern hemisphere. This is greater with regards to the Group's sales through the Group's distribution sales channel ("Distribution") and the Group's secondary market supplies of standalone aftermarket products, replacement products, service, spare parts and consumables sales channel ("Service and Aftermarket") (but less so for its OEM sales), which comprised 60 per cent. of the Group's total sales for the year ended 31 December 2024, and 61 per cent. for the three months ended 31 March 2025 as compared to 57 per cent. for the year ended 31 December 2023 and 57 per cent. for the three months ended 31 March 2024. Because the market for several of the Group's products primarily relates to activities enjoyed in good weather in the summer months, a majority of the Group's Distribution and Service and Aftermarket sales occur in spring and summer. During these seasons the Group's Distribution and Service and Aftermarket sales are in turn affected by general weather conditions, which impact consumers' desire to spend time outdoors. The Group's operations may be adversely affected by unseasonably cool weather in the months of May through July, which has the effect of diminishing customer demand for the Group's products and decreasing its sales volumes. Seasonal weather fluctuations could therefore have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Seasonal fluctuations can result in significant differences in the Group's quarter-to-quarter results, as well as, to a lesser extent, and depending on the occurrence of bad weather during a large part of the spring and summer season, year-on-year results. Although there has been demand for the Group's products throughout the year, in the past three financial years, 47 per cent. in 2022, 49 per cent. in 2023 and 50 per cent. in 2024 of the Group's total sales occurred in the five months from March through July. As the Group's year-end figures in the audited financial statements level such seasonality, such annual figures should not be relied upon as a benchmark of future sales and operating results measured on a quarterly basis. Similarly, quarterly sales results should not be annualised for an indication of yearly sales results.

The Group's cash requirements for the year typically peak in April through July. As the Group purchases direct materials and builds up finished goods inventory in advance of the summer selling season, the Group's inventory levels are substantially based on the Group's expectations for future net sales. However, net sales visibility is low and there is a risk that the Group will fail to achieve expected net sales during the summer selling season if the Group makes the wrong assumptions in respect of the upcoming demand. If the Group fails to accurately estimate demand during the busy selling season, it could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Inefficiencies in supply chain and inventory management may have a material adverse effect on the Group's results of operations

Inventory represents a large proportion of the Group's assets and inventory is costly to move, warehouse and handle. Efficient supply chain and inventory management is therefore important to the Group's business. Any disruption to the existing supply chain or inefficiency in managing inventory (including errors or omissions in forecasting or ordering by the Group or its customers) may result in excessive or insufficient inventory of a particular product or group of products. Even though the Group can sell products from earlier seasons, the wide product range offered by the Group can lead to excess inventory which exposes the Group to the risk that inventory may need to be impaired or discarded due to the Group's inability to sell the inventory. Conversely, insufficient inventory exposes the Group to the risk of having to purchase materials, components and finished products at higher prices in order to be able to deliver on time, to incur high costs for express freight, to pay penalties for not delivering on time or resulting in inability to meet customer demands. Accordingly, disruption to, or inefficiencies in, supply chain and inventory management could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Design or manufacturing defects in the Group's products or other defects may cause the Group to incur higher material costs and/or reputational issues as a result of product liability or warranty claims or related to recalls or reworks

In the event that one of the Group's products is alleged to contain a design or manufacturing defect, the Group could be required to incur costs related to product liability, warranty claims, recalling or reworking such product. A recall could divert managerial and financial resources and may adversely affect the Group's reputation with its customers as a manufacturer of safe, quality products. The Group has experienced a number of recalls in the past, both in the United States and also in the European market. Though the Group has product recall insurance for all of its manufacturing / assembly sites, the Group's insurance policies, including product liability and product recall policies, have limits that, if exceeded, may result in substantial costs for the Group. In addition, warranty claims are not covered by the product liability insurance and certain product liability claims may also not be covered by the product liability insurance. Further, warranty expense is recorded on the date that net sales is recognised and requires significant assumptions about what costs will be incurred in the future. For example, the Group determines provisions for warranties based on historical costs for repairs. The Group may be required to record material adjustments to accruals and expenses in the future if actual costs for these warranties are different from the Group's assumptions. The Group's warranty costs have been 1.3 per cent., 1.6 per cent. and 1.4 per cent. of its net sales for the years ended 31 December 2024, 2023 and 2022, respectively and 0.9 per cent., 1.4 per cent. and 1.3 per cent. for the three months ended 31 March 2025, 2024 and 2023, respectively. Provisions for recalled products are based on estimations of future cash flow required to regulate commitments. Such estimations are based on the nature of the recall, the legal process, and the likely extent of damages as well as the progress of the process. If these liabilities were to increase unexpectedly, however, they could substantially reduce profits and have a material adverse effect on the Group's operations. Even if a product liability claim is not successful or is not fully pursued, the negative publicity surrounding a product recall or any assertion that the Group's products caused property damage or personal injury could significantly damage the brand identity and the Group's reputation. Design or manufacturing defects, warranty or product liability claims, whether they result in liability or not, could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Price volatility or significant supply interruptions in direct materials could have a material adverse effect on the Group

In the manufacture of its products, the Group depends on direct materials, which are comprised of purchased component parts, semi manufactures, external products and raw materials such as steel, stainless steel, aluminium, copper and plastics. Direct materials typically accounts for approximately 58 per cent. of the Group's cost of goods sold.

An increase in the prices of direct materials may significantly increase the Group's cost of goods sold and may negatively impact the Group's margins if it is unable to effectively pass such price increases on to its customers. To the extent the cost of certain direct materials (e.g. aluminium, for awnings and windows and doors) increases substantially or freight costs due to fuel surcharges or otherwise, the Group's profitability could decline. During 2021 and 2022, supply chain disruptions, inflation, rising raw material prices, increased freight costs, and the limited availability of critical components have negatively impacted the Group's profitability and cash flow. While raw material prices and freight costs declined in 2023, the availability of critical components remained a challenge. However, from 2024 onwards, the situation has improved significantly, with critical component shortages reduced to a minimum.

If the Group increases its own prices in response to increases in the prices or quantities of direct materials or components the Group requires, or encounters significant supply interruptions, the Group's competitive position could be materially adversely affected, which may result in depressed sales. Although the Group typically tries to pass increases in prices of direct materials on to its customers through price increases, there may be a delay before the Group can pass such price changes on to its customers. The ability to transfer increases in prices of direct materials to customers depends on the term and type of contract entered into with the customers in each business area. In general the Group includes a clause in customer contracts which enables renegotiation of prices in situations when costs levels change as a result of, for example, freight limitations, raw material price developments or currency movements. The notice period differs depending on customer type. In commercial passenger vehicles ("CPVs"), OEM long-term contracts are standard which limits the possibility to pass on price increases.

Additionally, the Group's purchases of direct materials and components from international suppliers are subject to risks associated with changes in, and application of, laws, regulations and policies, including those related to tariffs (such as anti-dumping and countervailing duties) and other trade barriers.

If the prices of the Group's direct materials continue to increase, and if the Group is unable to pass on such price increases to its consumers or if trade barriers limit the Group's access to direct materials, this could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group's production operations exposes the Group to operational risks in the form of service interruptions caused by breakdowns in machinery and industrial accidents

The Group operates 22 manufacturing / assembly sites in 11 countries (see further "Description of the Group – Manufacturing/assembly"). Machines located at one or more of these manufacturing / assembly sites could fail, leading to interruptions in service. These interruptions in service could cause product delivery delays if production cannot be taken over by other of the Group's facilities. It is also possible that repeated or extended delays could damage the Group's reputation and thus lead to a loss of customers. Shifting production to another facility could also lead to increased costs associated with moving materials and products to a distant facility.

Operating machinery also carries the risk of industrial accidents which could injure, or even cause deaths. In the event of an industrial accident, the Group may be faced with claims for damages, which are costly and time-consuming to defend. Should the Group be found liable, and should insurance coverage prove to be insufficient, the Group could be financially responsible, in whole or in part, for the injury suffered. A disruption in service at the Group's manufacturing / assembly sites or an industrial accident or injury could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

A force majeure event affecting the Group's major manufacturing / assembly sites may materially affect the Group's ability to operate and produce saleable products and a part of the Group's manufacturing capacity could be shut down for an extended period

The incidence and severity of force majeure events such as floods or natural disasters, fires, terrorism, power loss or other similar events, are inherently unpredictable, and could impede the Group's ability to operate its business and lead to the Group incurring substantial losses. In such a situation, the Group's manufacturing capacity could be reduced for an extended period and the Group could experience a loss of direct materials, work in process or finished goods inventory. The Group's property damage and business interruption insurance may be insufficient to mitigate the losses from any such event. The Group may also be unable to recover the value of the lost products or work-in-progress, as well as the sales opportunities from the products the Group would be unable to produce, and the delivery of its products to customers could be delayed and, if the delay is prolonged, could permit the Group's customers to terminate the purchase. Any of these events could harm the Group's results of operations and financial condition. Also, certain force majeure events such as war, riots, flooding, earthquakes or typhoons in certain areas where the Group has a high concentration of sales could lessen demand for its products in those areas and could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group's contractual counterparts may fail to fulfil their contractual obligations

The Group produces a majority of its products in-house and is dependent on external suppliers' availability, production, quality assurance and delivery in order to manufacture, sell and deliver goods. Incorrect and delayed deliveries or even non-deliveries from suppliers of various types could mean that the Group's deliveries in turn are delayed, incomplete or incorrect or that they have to be discontinued, which could result in reduced sales and an adverse impact on the Group's customer relations. Such disruptions in supplier deliveries could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial position and results of operations.

Additionally, the Group's dealers, distributors or customers may fail to fulfil their obligations towards the Group, including the ability to sell and/or deliver the Group's products to consumers and to pay for any products delivered fully and on time. Should the Group's counterparts fail to fulfil contractual obligations to the Group, it could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Strikes and other industrial actions, as well as the negotiation of a new collective bargaining agreement, could disrupt the Group's operations or make it more costly to operate its facilities

The Group is exposed to the risk of strikes and other industrial actions in accordance with applicable regulations within all of its regions. The Group is a member of employer organisations, and is thereby bound by collective bargaining agreements with employee organisations, as well as local collective bargaining agreements with the same trade unions. The collective bargaining agreements provide for annual salary increases and include general terms and conditions on, among other things, vacation entitlements, notice periods, working hours and insurance benefits. The Group may in the future experience lengthy consultations with trade unions, strikes, work stoppages or other industrial actions called by the trade unions according to law, which could result in the Group being unable to serve customers in a timely manner. Strikes and other industrial actions, and the negotiation of new collective bargaining agreements or salary increases in the future, could disrupt the Group's operations and make it more costly to operate its facilities, which in turn could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Strategic Risks

Loss of the Group's management and other key employees, or an inability to attract such management or other key employees, could impact the Group's business

The Group depends significantly on the continued services of its existing management and key employees and on its ability to recruit, retain and train skilled personnel within production, product development and specialised areas, particularly professionals with experience in the business and operations of the Group and of the markets in which it operates. If these qualified and skilled employees leave or if the Group is unable to attract, retain, train and motivate additional qualified and skilled employees (for example through the development programme for management or other initiatives for training talents), the Group may experience difficulties conducting its operations. If the Group were to lose any of its key employees and either fail to replace them or experience significant expense or delay in replacing them, this could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Damage to the Group's reputation may result in the Group losing business or growth opportunities

The Group is dependent on its reputation. The Group's reputation can influence the purchase decision of both new customers and existing customers. For example, quality issues, operational or logistics problems and the loss of a well-known customer or supplier could damage the Group's reputation and, thereby, have an adverse effect on the Group's ability to retain existing customers or attract new customers. In addition, the Group faces the risk that its employees and other persons affiliated with the Group, may take actions that are unethical, criminal (including, but not limited to, with respect to violation of applicable anti-corruption or anti-bribery legislation) or otherwise contravene the Group's internal guidelines and policies. Customers or suppliers could associate the Group with such misconduct, which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's reputation, business, financial condition and results of operations.

Disruptions or breaches in the Group's IT systems may make it difficult to conduct business

The Group's production is dependent on the reliability, functionality, maintenance, operation and continuing development of its IT systems at its offices and manufacturing / assembly sites. Furthermore, IT systems are required for the Group to purchase, sell and deliver products and to invoice customers. The Group's IT systems are also important for maintaining accurate accounting and financial reporting systems. Disruptions, for example, as a consequence of upgrades to existing IT systems, or deficiencies in the function of the Group's IT systems, could disrupt the Group's ability to conduct its business, which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. The Group is also dependent on having an advanced IT system to be able to be competitive in the market. The quality and effective utilisation of the information generated by its IT systems, and the Group's success in implementing new systems and upgrades, affects, among other things, the Group's ability to:

- conduct its business and carry out sales to its customers, including via e-commerce;
- purchase, sell, ship and invoice products efficiently and on a timely basis;
- maintain a cost-efficient operating model; and
- manage its inventory and accounts receivable.

The integrity of the Group's IT systems is vulnerable to disruption due to forces beyond the Group's control such as cyber-attacks. Further there is a risk that the Group's backup systems will not operate properly if and when required. Any disruption to or infiltration of the Group's IT systems could have a major impact on the Group's ability to service customers' needs, or result in negative publicity, which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group operates in a global environment and is consequently exposed to local business risk in many countries as well as risk associated with different legal systems and various regulations

The Group operates in a global environment and is consequently exposed to various complex, demanding and evolving legal, administrative and regulatory requirements, relating to, among other things, government procurement regulations, regulations regarding the protection of classified information, regulations prohibiting bribery and other corrupt practices, regulations regarding the pricing of labour and other costs in contracts, regulations on lobbying or similar activities, regulations pertaining to internal controls over financial reporting, environmental, trade, competition and anti-trust laws and regulations, and any other applicable laws or regulations. Failure to comply with applicable laws or regulations or acts of misconduct could subject the Group to fines, penalties, and suspension or debarment from contracting, or negative effects on its reputation, which could weaken its ability to win contracts and result in reduced net sales and profits. A substantial portion of the Group's production capacity is in China. The Chinese legal system, in particular, continues to evolve rapidly and the interpretation of many laws and regulations entails uncertainties which may limit the protection available to foreign investments. Additionally, to resort to administrative and court proceedings to enforce legal protection granted by law or to enforce contractual rights may not always be successful. Administrative authorities and courts have significant discretion in interpreting and implementing statutory and contractual terms, circumstances unrelated to the legal merits of a particular matter or dispute may influence their determination. It is therefore more difficult to assess the outcome of any proceedings and the level of protection that is available than it would be in other legal systems. Accordingly, the factors outlined above could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Moreover, trade restrictions introduced by way of laws, policies, measures, controls or other actions implemented by the authorities in the countries in which the Group operates, or in other countries where the Group may operate in the future, as well as sanctions or other measures by associations and organisations, such as the European Union and the United Nations, may restrict the Group's operations, delay or prevent planned investments or otherwise have a material adverse effect on the Group's financial results.

The Group may not be able to develop and implement systems, policies and practices to completely manage these risks or comply with applicable regulations without incurring additional costs. If any of these risks materialise it could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition or results of operations.

The Group's insurance coverage, contractual indemnifications and limitations on liability could prove inadequate

The Group's insurance coverage, contractual indemnifications and limitations on liability may not adequately protect the Group against liability for certain events, or against direct and consequential losses resulting from a business interruption. Moreover, there is a risk that the Group will not be able to maintain insurance at levels that it deems adequate, that no insurance coverage is available or that contracts do not contain adequate limitations on liability. There is also a risk that such insurance, indemnification and limitations on liability will not adequately protect the Group against liability from all of the hazards and risks the Group encounters in operating its business.

The occurrence of an event against which the Group is not fully insured or otherwise contractually protected or the failure of a customer or insurer to meet its indemnification towards end customers or insurance obligations, could result in substantial losses. In addition, there is a risk that insurance will not be available to cover any or all of these risks, or, even if available, those insurance premiums or other costs will rise significantly in the future, so as to make the cost of such insurance prohibitive. Any future damage caused by the Group's products or services that are not covered by insurance, are in excess of policy limits, are subject to substantial deductibles, or are not limited by contractual limitations on liability, could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Acquisitions may expose the Group to risks and the Group may not realise the expected benefits of past or future acquisitions in the medium to long term

As part of the Group's growth strategy, the Group has in the past and may in the future acquire or invest in additional complementary companies to further build product range or geographical reach. Acquisitions may expose the Group to risks relating to, among other things, integration, negative effects on relationships with key customers, inability to retain key employees as well as difficulties in or unanticipated costs for combining the operations. There is also a risk that integration processes may take longer than expected and that anticipated synergies do not materialise, in whole or in part. The integration process may be complex, costly and time-consuming.

In addition, it is possible that the companies that the Group has acquired, or which the Group may acquire in the future, have liabilities in respect of former or existing operations which the Group has not been able to identify and assess through due diligence. In some cases, the Group has not received indemnities or otherwise obtained insurance coverage for environmental and other issues which may have existed at the time the Group acquired the companies, as may be the case in relation to potential future acquisitions. Any substantial liability for remediation or damages as a result of such issues could require significant levels of expenditures.

Past and future divestments of a business may expose the Group to risks, including risks pertaining to terms and conditions for the divestment of a business, such as warranties, indemnifications and undertakings in favour of the purchaser with respect to the business divested.

If any of these risks related to past or future acquisitions or divestments were to materialise, it could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group's actual future results may differ materially from what is expressed or implied by the financial targets presented in the Base Prospectus, and investors should not place undue reliance on these targets

The financial targets set forth in this Base Prospectus (see "Description of the Group – Financial Targets") are the Group's expectations for the medium to long term, including net sales growth, EBIT margin net debt/EBITDA (leverage) and dividend. The actual results of the Group may differ materially from what is expressed or implied by the medium and long term financial targets. These financial targets are based upon a number of assumptions, which are inherently subject to significant business, operational, economic and other risks, many of which are outside of the Group's control. These assumptions may not continue to reflect the commercial, regulatory and economic environment in which the Group operates. If the assumptions underlying the expected market growth prove to be inaccurate and actual growth is much lower, the Group may be unable to meet its target. Similarly, for reasons both within and outside of the Group's control the Group may not be in a position to achieve net sales growth in line with the market. Accordingly, such assumptions used for setting the Group's financial targets may change or may not materialise at all. In addition, unanticipated events may have a material adverse effect on the actual results that the Group achieves in future periods whether or not its assumptions otherwise prove to be correct. As a result, the Group's actual results may vary materially from these targets and investors should not place undue reliance on them.

Financial Risks

The Group's international operations subject it to risks associated with foreign currency fluctuations

Currency risk refers to the risk of exchange-rate fluctuations having an adverse effect on the Group's consolidated income statement, balance sheet or cash flow. Foreign exchange exposure occurs in conjunction with materials and services being bought or sold in currencies other than the respective subsidiary's functional reporting currency (transaction exposure) and when non-Swedish subsidiaries' assets, liabilities and operations are translated into the Group's reporting currency, SEK (translation exposure). The Group's global operations give rise to significant cash flow in foreign currency. The Group is principally exposed to changes in euro, U.S. dollar, Australian dollar, Chinese yuan and U.K. pound sterling compared to SEK. In addition, currency exchange-rate fluctuations can have a significant impact on the Group's capital structure and financial costs, with respect to external and intercompany indebtedness denominated in currencies other than SEK. There is a risk that fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates, particularly the strengthening of SEK against major currencies could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group's tax liabilities could change due to any successful challenge of the Group's past or current tax positions or as a result of changes in tax laws

The Group operates through a number of subsidiaries in several countries and the Group and its subsidiaries are from time to time subject to tax reviews and audits. The tax strategies applied by the Group are based on interpretations of the current tax laws, treaties and regulations of the various countries involved and the requirements of the relevant tax authorities. There is a risk that tax audits or reviews may result in the reduction of tax losses carry forwards or imposition of additional tax, which may be due to for example acquisitions, capital restructurings and intra-group reorganisations and transactions.

In the event that the Group's interpretation of tax laws, treaties and regulations or their applicability is incorrect, if one or more governmental authorities successfully make negative tax adjustments with regard to a Group entity or if the applicable laws, treaties, regulations or governmental interpretations thereof or administrative practice in relation thereto change, including with retroactive effect, the Group's past or current tax positions may be challenged. In the event tax authorities were to succeed with such claims, this could result in an increased tax cost, including tax surcharges and interest which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. Sweden's interest deduction limitation rules which include a cap for a deduction of net interest expenses at 30 per cent. of tax EBITDA, with certain exceptions. These rules may restrict the deductibility of interest expenses and increase the Group's tax burden.

The Group's tax burden could increase if tax authorities consider that the Group does not act in accordance with applicable rules on transfer pricing

The jurisdictions in which the Group operates have rules on transfer pricing, that require intra-group transactions to be conducted on arm's length terms. The transfer pricing strategies applied by the Group are based on the OECD Transfer Pricing Guidelines, national regulations and documented principles to determine intra-group transfer prices, which are monitored by the Group's tax function. Transactions conducted between the Group companies, such as distribution of products, IT costs, research and development ("R&D") services, the Group's cash-pool and intra-group loans, are, according to the Group, made on a commercial basis by application of international guidelines and national regulations. The Group's transfer pricing practices are from time to time subject to tax reviews. In the event the tax authorities in the jurisdictions where the Group operates consider the transfer prices not to be on arm's length terms and were to succeed with such claims, this could result in an increased tax cost, including tax surcharges and interest which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

Tax losses could be partly or fully restricted, either as a result of future changes in tax laws or, under the current rules, as a result of a change of control

Tax losses may be restricted or forfeited either as a result of future changes in Swedish tax law or, under the current rules, as a result of a change of control through which one holder obtains the decisive influence or several holders together hold shares, acquired during a specific time frame, representing more than 50 per cent. of the votes calculated in a certain manner. Such a change of control would forfeit historical tax losses carry forward, to the extent they exceed 200 per cent. of the acquisition cost for the decisive influence (under a special calculation where contributions and other transfers of value may reduce the purchase price in a certain manner). The forfeiture or restriction on the use of the Group's tax loss carry forwards may have a significant impact on the Group's tax burden, including a potential imposition of tax surcharges, and could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group has tax loss carry forwards in several countries, amounting to in total SEK 3,291 million as of 31 December 2024, out of which tax losses in all the Group entities incorporated in Sweden amount to SEK 3,251 million. Deferred tax assets have been recognised in full in relation to tax losses in Swedish entities.

The Group's balance sheet includes significant intangible assets including goodwill, and if these are impaired and required to be written down, it could have a material adverse effect on the Group's financial condition

The Group has significant amounts of goodwill and brands that have indefinite life and which are not amortised. As of 31 December 2024, the goodwill and trademark assets amounted to SEK 26,756 million in the aggregate as compared to SEK 27,034 million in the aggregate as of 31 December 2023. In accordance with IFRS, goodwill and intangible assets that are not amortised, but are subject to at least an annual impairment test. Pursuant to IFRS, an impairment test should be performed more frequently if there are indicators of impairment, for example:

- significant adverse changes that have taken place or are expected in the near future in the market, economic or legal environment in which the Group operates or in its markets;
- increases in interest rates or other market rates of return that may materially affect the discount rate used in calculating the asset's recoverable amount;
- the carrying amount of our net assets exceeding our market capitalisation;
- management's forecasts of future net cash inflows or operating profit showing a significant decline from previous budgets and forecasts;
- actual net cash outflows or operating profit or loss being significantly worse than budgeted; and
- operating losses or net cash outflows being forecast.

Should the Group's assumptions and estimates about future economic and financial market conditions, operating performance in the Group's cash generating units, or any other of its assumptions and estimates, including those listed above, prove to be incorrect, a future impairment test may require the Group to write down these assets, generating future impairment charges, and such write-down and impairment charges could be material. Any future impairment charges that the Group is required to record could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group's indebtedness or future additional indebtedness could adversely affect its financial condition, ability to operate its business, react to changes in the economy or its industry and pay its debts

The Group now has a significant amount of indebtedness. As at 31 December 2024, the Group had SEK 11,289 million of net debt and SEK 11,312 million (excluding provision for pension and accrued interest) as at 31 March 2025 (as compared to SEK 12,029 million as at 31 December 2023 and SEK 12,996 million as at 31 March 2024). The Group requires a significant amount of cash to service its debt obligations.

The Group's indebtedness could have important consequences to its business, including:

- making it more difficult for the Group to satisfy its obligations with respect to its indebtedness;
- increasing the Group's vulnerability to general adverse economic and industry conditions;
- requiring the Group to dedicate a substantial portion of its cash flow from operations to payments on its indebtedness, thereby limiting cash flow available to fund working capital, capital expenditures or other general corporate requirements;
- limiting the Group's flexibility in planning for, or reacting to, changes in tax regulations, its business and the industry and making it more vulnerable to economic downturns and adverse industry conditions;
- compromising the Group's ability to exploit business opportunities and to react to competitive pressures, as compared to less indebted competitors; and

- limiting the Group's ability to obtain additional financing to fund future working capital, capital expenditures, other general corporate requirements and acquisitions.

The Group's ability to make scheduled payments, to refinance its debt on favourable terms or at all, to fund future operations and required capital expenditures will depend on the Group's future operating performance and ability to generate sufficient cash. Some aspects of the Group's future results depend on economic, financial and competitive factors and other factors beyond its control. Should the Group fail to meet its obligations under its indebtedness or breach any undertaking or covenant, it could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition and results of operations.

Legal and Regulatory Risks

The Group is subject to stringent environmental laws and other regulations, and the violation of, or the cost of compliance with, such laws and regulations could have a material adverse effect on the Group's operations and cash flows

The Group is subject to stringent environmental laws and regulations as a result of the nature of its business, including the use of chemicals at its manufacturing / assembly sites. Chemicals currently and historically used at some of the Group manufacturing / assembly sites include solvents/degreasing agents, cooling agents (for filling of air conditioners and refrigerators) and petroleum products. Solvents used for degreasing are currently mainly alkaline and phosphorous based. Numerous governmental and regulatory bodies enforce laws and regulations on a wide range of environmental, occupational safety and health, nuisance, zoning, land use and other regulatory matters. The Group's failure to comply with these increasingly stringent laws and regulations could subject the Group to future liabilities or result in the limitation or suspension of the sale or production of products. These laws may also provide for strict liability for damage to natural resources or threats to public health and safety, which can render a party liable without proof of negligence or fault and, if imposed by way of fine or penalty, is generally not something for which insurance can be procured. The Group may also be liable for clean-up costs and replacement costs and subject to litigation claims under these regimes. The Group has acquired, or may in the future acquire, certain manufacturing / assembly sites with existing environmental issues about which it has no knowledge and over which the Group has no control prior to its purchase of the facility, or divest certain manufacturing / assembly sites with environmental issues, and become liable for noncompliance with environmental laws. If the Group is unable to refute rulings or conclusions against it or to remedy any violations, the regulatory authorities may impose fines, criminal and administrative penalties or severe sanctions, including but not limited to enjoining the Group from carrying on certain of its business activities. The Group may also be required to pay damages to private parties, including property owners located near the Group's manufacturing / assembly sites, due to non-compliance with environmental laws and regulations, or if the Group's operations or contamination from its sites cause them personal injury, result in physical damage to their property or interfere with the enjoyment of their property rights.

The Group incurs, and expects to continue to incur, capital and operating costs to comply with the applicable environmental laws and regulations, the technical requirements of which are becoming increasingly complex and stringent and therefore more difficult to comply with. Stricter enforcement of existing laws and regulations, the introduction of new laws and regulations, the discovery of previously unknown contamination or the imposition of new or increased requirements could require the Group to incur costs or become the basis of new or increased liabilities that could reduce earnings and cash available for operations. If any such liabilities are not covered by insurance or otherwise exceed the Group's environmental liability reserves, they could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

In addition, the Group faces the risk of environmental accidents associated with the Group's operations, which could result in material costs and liabilities. The Group's operations routinely involve the handling of significant amounts of chemical substances, some of which are classified as hazardous and subject the Group to specific handling requirements, including, for example, chromate, which is used in the Group's absorption refrigerators. As is the case with manufacturers in general, if a release or threat of release of hazardous materials occurs on or from the Group's properties or any associated offsite disposal location, or if contamination from prior activities is discovered at any properties owned or operated by the Group, the Group may be held liable for response costs and damages to natural resources, which could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group is exposed to the risk of litigation, investigations and other proceedings

The Group is involved in various claims and lawsuits incidental to its business, including those involving labour relations, product liability and environmental matters, among others. The Group is also party to a number of pending lawsuits. See also "Description of the Group – Litigation and arbitration". Disputes, claims, investigations and proceedings may lead to the Group having to pay damages or cease certain practices. Group companies may become involved in disputes within the framework of their normal business activities and risk being subject to various claims. In addition, Group companies (or Group companies' officers, directors, employees or affiliates) may become subject to criminal investigations and proceedings. Disputes, claims, investigations and proceedings of this kind can be time consuming, disrupt normal operations, involve large claim amounts and result in considerable costs. Moreover, it can be difficult to predict the outcome of complex disputes, claims, investigations and proceedings. Given the inherent uncertainty of litigation, there is a risk that existing litigation or any future disputes, claims, investigations and proceedings could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group's business operations could be negatively impacted if it fails to adequately protect its intellectual property rights or if third parties claim that the Group is in violation of their intellectual property rights

The Group markets and sells its products under one main brand, Dometic, as well as a number of supporting brands such as Igloo. With the acquisition of SeaStar Solutions ("SeaStar") in 2017, Kampa UK Limited ("Kampa") in 2018, and Twin Eagles, Enerdrive, Frontrunner, Valterra, Buttner, Zampsolar, Igloo, Cadac International ("Cadac") and NDS Energy in 2021, and Treeline in 2022, these brands were added to the portfolio along with a number of other secondary tradenames. The Group is dependent on these brands which are protected by approximately 1,500 trademark registrations and pending applications. In addition to its trademark registrations, the Group's patent and design portfolio contains more than 3,000 individual patents, utility models and design applications and/or granted registrations in countries all over the world. Failure to protect these brands and supporting brand names and other intellectual property rights or to prevent their unauthorised use by third parties could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business. These protections may not be adequate to prevent competitors from copying or reverse engineering the Group's products, or from developing and marketing products that are substantially equivalent or superior to the Group's own.

In addition, the Group faces the risk of claims that it is infringing third parties' intellectual property rights. Any such claim, even if it is without merit, could be expensive and time-consuming, could cause the Group to cease making, using or selling certain products that incorporate the disputed intellectual property, could require the Group to redesign its products, if feasible, could divert management time and attention and could require the Group to enter into costly royalty or licensing arrangements. If any of the above risks were to materialise, it could have a material adverse effect on the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations.

The Group is subject to competition law risks which could have a material adverse effect on its business, financial condition and results of operations

The Group operates a consumer focussed business and so it is subject to competition laws in the jurisdictions in which it operates. Contractual conditions and prices in agreements that are used in the Group's operations may be subject to restrictions under such competition laws. Competition authorities have the power to initiate ex-post regulation procedures and to require a party to cease applying contractual terms and prices that are found to be anti-competitive. Competition authorities also have the power to impose fines and other sanctions as a result of non-compliance with relevant regulatory requirements.

To the extent the Group is unable to ensure compliance with applicable competition laws, the Group may be materially adversely affected by the regulatory sanctions, remedies and claims for damages as well as inability to enforce contractual terms that are found to be anti-competitive.

2. FACTORS WHICH ARE MATERIAL FOR THE PURPOSE OF ASSESSING THE MARKET RISKS ASSOCIATED WITH NOTES ISSUED UNDER THE PROGRAMME

Risks related to the structure of a particular issue of Notes

A wide range of Notes may be issued under the Programme. A number of these Notes may have features which contain particular risks for potential investors. Set out below is a description of the most common such features.

Notes subject to optional redemption by the Issuer

The Issuer may issue Notes which are subject to optional redemption by the Issuer. An optional redemption feature is likely to limit the market value of Notes. During any period when the Issuer may elect to redeem Notes, the market value of such Notes generally will not rise substantially above the price at which they can be redeemed. This also may be true prior to any redemption period.

The Issuer may be expected to redeem Notes when its cost of borrowing is lower than the interest rate on the Notes. At those times, an investor generally would not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds at an effective interest rate as high as the interest rate on the Notes being redeemed and may only be able to do so at a significantly lower rate. Potential investors should consider reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

With respect to the Clean-Up Call Option by the Issuer (Condition 7(i)), there is no obligation on the Issuer to inform investors if and when the 80 per cent. threshold of the nominal amount of Notes of a particular Series of Notes has been reached or is about to be reached, and the Issuer's right to redeem will exist notwithstanding that immediately prior to the serving of a notice in respect of the exercise of the Clean-Up Call Option, the Notes may have been trading significantly above par, thus potentially resulting in a loss of capital invested.

Notes which are issued at a substantial discount or premium may experience price volatility in response to changes in market interest rates

The Issuer may issue Notes at a substantial discount or premium. The market values of securities issued at a substantial discount (such as Zero Coupon Notes) or premium to their nominal amount tend to fluctuate more in relation to general changes in interest rates than do prices for conventional interest-bearing securities. Generally, the longer the remaining term of the securities, the greater the price volatility as compared to conventional interest-bearing securities with comparable maturities.

Discontinuation or reformation of certain base rates described herein as "benchmarks," including EURIBOR

The Euro Interbank Offered Rate ("EURIBOR") and other interest rates or other types of rates and indices which are used to determine the amounts payable under financial instruments or the value of such financial instruments ("benchmarks") are the subject of ongoing national and international regulatory scrutiny. This has resulted in regulatory reform and changes to existing benchmarks, with further changes anticipated. These reforms and changes may affect the manner of administration of benchmarks, with the result that they may perform differently than in the past, or benchmarks could be eliminated entirely, or there could be other consequences which cannot be predicted.

It is not possible to predict with certainty whether, and to what extent, EURIBOR and/or other benchmark rates will continue to be supported going forwards. This may cause EURIBOR and/or other benchmark rates to perform differently than they have done in the past and may have other consequences which cannot be predicted.

The "Terms and Conditions of the Notes" set out below provide for certain fallback arrangements in the event that a published benchmark, such as EURIBOR, (including any page on which such benchmark may be published (or any successor service)) becomes unavailable, including the possibility that the rate of interest could be set by reference to a successor rate or an alternative reference rate following the Issuer's consultation with an Independent Adviser (as defined below) and that such successor rate or alternative reference rate may be adjusted (if required) in order to reduce or eliminate, to the extent reasonably practicable in the circumstances, any economic prejudice or benefit (as applicable) to investors arising out of the replacement of the relevant benchmark. In certain circumstances, the ultimate fallback of interest for a particular Interest Period may result in the rate of interest for the last preceding Interest Period being used. This may result in the effective application of a fixed rate for Floating Rate Notes based on the rate which was last observed on the Relevant Screen Page. In addition, due to the uncertainty concerning the availability of successor rates and alternative reference rates and the involvement of an Independent Adviser, the relevant fallback provisions may not operate as intended at the relevant time.

Any such consequences could have a material adverse effect on the value of and return on any such Notes. Moreover, any of the above matters or any other significant change to the setting or existence of any relevant reference rate could affect the ability of the relevant Issuer to meet its obligations under the Floating Rate Notes or could have a material adverse effect on the value or liquidity of, and the amount payable under, the Floating Rate Notes. Investors should consider these matters when making their investment decision with respect to the relevant Floating Rate Notes.

Fixed/Floating Rate Notes

The Issuer may issue Fixed/Floating Rate Notes which may bear interest at a rate that the Issuer may elect to convert from a fixed rate to a floating rate, or from a floating rate to a fixed rate. The conversion of the interest basis may affect the secondary market in, and the market value of, such Notes where the change of interest basis results in a lower interest return for Noteholders. Where the relevant Notes convert from a fixed rate to a floating rate, the spread on the relevant Fixed/Floating Rate Notes may be less favourable than then prevailing spreads on comparable Floating Rate Notes tied to the same reference rate. In addition, the new floating rate at any time may be lower than the rates on other Notes. Where the relevant Notes convert from a floating rate to a fixed rate, the fixed rate may be lower than then prevailing rates on the relevant Notes and could affect the market value of an investment in the relevant Notes.

Risks related to all Notes issued under the Programme

Set out below is a brief description of certain risks relating to all Notes issued under the Programme.

Claims of Noteholders under the Notes are effectively subordinated to those of certain other creditors of the Issuer and to creditors of the Issuer's subsidiaries

Notes issued under the Programme will be unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer. The Notes will rank equally with all of the Issuer's other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness; however, the Notes will be effectively subordinated to the Issuer's secured indebtedness, if any, to the extent of the value of the assets securing such transactions, and will be subject to certain preferential obligations under Swedish law, such as wages of employees.

Generally, lenders and trade and other creditors of the Issuer's subsidiaries are entitled to payment of their claims from the assets of such subsidiaries before these assets would be available for distribution to the Issuer, as direct or indirect shareholder, which would then allow for the Issuer to make payments under the Notes. Any debt that the Issuer's subsidiaries may incur in the future will also rank structurally senior to Notes issued under the Programme.

A significant part of the Group's assets and revenues are generated by the Issuer's subsidiaries. The subsidiaries are legally separated from the Issuer and the subsidiaries' ability to make payments to the Issuer is restricted by, among other things, the availability of funds, corporate restrictions and local law. Furthermore, in the event of insolvency, liquidation or a similar event relating to one of the subsidiaries, all creditors of such subsidiary would be entitled to payment in full out of the assets of such subsidiary before any entity within the Group, as a shareholder, would be entitled to any payments. Thus, Notes issued under the Programme are structurally subordinated to the liabilities of the subsidiaries of the Issuer.

The Notes will constitute unsecured obligations of the Issuer

The Issuer's obligations under the Notes will be unsecured. Accordingly, any claims against the Issuer under the Notes would be unsecured claims. The Issuer's ability to pay such claims will depend upon, among other factors, its liquidity, overall financial strength and its ability and that of the Group's subsidiaries to generate cash flows, which could be affected by, inter alia, the circumstances described in these risk factors. Any such factors could affect the Issuer's ability to make payment of interest and principal under the Notes.

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes may be modified

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes contain provisions for calling meetings of Noteholders to consider matters affecting their interests generally. These provisions permit defined majorities to bind all Noteholders including Noteholders who did not attend and vote at the relevant meeting and Noteholders who voted in a manner contrary to the majority.

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes also provide that the Trustee may, without the consent of Noteholders, agree to (i) certain modifications of, or to the waiver or authorisation of any breach or proposed breach of, any of the provisions of Notes or (ii) the substitution of another company as principal debtor under any Notes in place of the Issuer or the Guarantor, in the circumstances described in Condition 12 (Meetings of Noteholders: Modification, Waiver and Substitution).

Notes where denominations involve integral multiples

In relation to any issue of Notes which have denominations consisting of a minimum Specified Denomination plus one or more higher integral multiples of another smaller amount, it is possible that such Notes may be traded in amounts that are not integral multiples of such minimum Specified Denomination. In such a case a holder who, as a result of trading such amounts, holds an amount which is less than the minimum Specified Denomination in his account with the relevant clearing system at the relevant time may not receive a definitive bearer Note in respect of such holding (should definitive Notes be printed) and would need to purchase a principal amount of Notes such that its holding amounts to a Specified Denomination.

If definitive Notes are issued, holders should be aware that definitive Notes which have a denomination that is not an integral multiple of the minimum Specified Denomination may be illiquid and difficult to trade.

Change of law

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes are based on English law in effect as at the date of issue of the relevant Notes. No assurance can be given as to the impact of any possible judicial decision or change to English law or administrative practice after the date of issue of the relevant Notes.

Eligibility of the Notes for Eurosystem Monetary Policy

The New Global Note form has been introduced to allow for the possibility of debt instruments to be held in a manner which will allow Eurosystem eligibility. This means that any such Notes are upon issue deposited with one of the international central securities depositories as common safekeeper and does not necessarily mean that such Notes will be recognised as eligible collateral for Eurosystem monetary policy and intra-day credit operations by the Eurosystem ("Eurosystem Eligible Collateral") either upon issue, or at any or all times during their life. Such recognition will depend upon satisfaction of the Eurosystem eligibility criteria and other obligations (including the provision of further information) as specified by the European Central Bank from time to time. The Issuer does not give any representation, warranty, confirmation or guarantee to any investor that such Notes will, either upon issue, or at any or all times during their life, satisfy all or any requirements for Eurosystem eligibility and be recognised as Eurosystem Eligible Collateral. Any potential investor in any such Notes should make their own conclusions and seek their own advice with respect to whether or not any such Notes constitute Eurosystem Eligible Collateral.

Because the Global Notes and the Global Certificates are held by or on behalf of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, investors will have to rely on their procedures for transfer, payment and communication with the Issuer

Notes issued under the Programme may be represented by one or more Global Notes or Global Certificates. Such Global Notes or Global Certificates will be deposited with (in the case of a CGN or a Note not to be held under the NSS) a common depositary for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, or (in the case of NGN or a Note to be held under the NSS) Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg as common safekeeper. Except in the circumstances described in the relevant Global Note or Global Certificate, investors will not be entitled to receive Definitive Notes. Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg will maintain records of the beneficial interests in the Global Notes or Global Certificates. While the Notes are represented by one or more Global Notes or Global Certificates, investors will be able to trade their beneficial interests only through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg.

While the Notes are represented by one or more Global Notes or Global Certificates, the Issuer will discharge its payment obligations under the Notes by making payments to (in the case of CGN or a Note that is not to be held under the NSS) the common depository for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg, or (in the case of NGN or a Note that is to be held under the NSS) Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg as common safekeeper for distribution to their account holders. A holder of a beneficial interest in a Global Note or a Global Certificate must rely on the procedures of Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg to receive payments under the relevant Notes. The Issuer has no responsibility or liability for the records relating to, or payments made in respect of, beneficial interests in the Global Notes or the Global Registered Notes.

Judgments entered against Swedish entities in the courts of a state which is not subject to the Brussels Regulations or the Lugano Convention may not be recognised or enforceable in Sweden

A judgment entered against a company incorporated in Sweden in the courts of a state which is not, under the terms of (i) Regulation (EU) No. 1215/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 12 December 2012 on jurisdiction and the recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters (the "2012 Brussels Regulation") or (ii) the Convention on jurisdiction and the recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters made at Lugano on 30 October 2007 (the "Lugano Convention"), a Member State (as defined in the 2012 Brussels Regulation) or a Contracting State (as defined in the Lugano Convention), would not be recognised or enforceable in Sweden as a matter of law without a retrial on its merits (but will be of persuasive authority as a matter of evidence before the courts of law, administrative tribunals or executive or other public authorities of Sweden).

Uncertainty regarding whether English court judgments relating to the Notes would be enforceable in Sweden

The United Kingdom left the EU on 31 January 2020 and the transitional period agreed in the withdrawal agreement, during which EU law continued to apply to the United Kingdom, expired on 31 December 2020. As a result, the 2012 Brussels Regulation has ceased to apply to the UK (and English court judgments). On 12 January 2024, the United Kingdom signed the Hague Convention of 2 July 2019 on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Judgments in Civil or Commercial Matters ("Hague 2019") and, assuming neither the United Kingdom nor Sweden notifies otherwise, it will enter into force between the United Kingdom and Sweden in July 2025. Hague 2019 provides for the mutual enforcement of judgments between the United Kingdom and other contracting states, including EU member states, in proceedings started after Hague 2019 comes into force in the United Kingdom. Asymmetric and non-exclusive jurisdiction clauses will be covered by Hague 2019, which will apply to judgments given in proceedings initiated after Hague 2019 comes into effect, regardless of when the agreement was made. If either the United Kingdom or Sweden notifies the depository that the United Kingdom's ratification shall not have the effect of establishing relations between the United Kingdom and Sweden, Hague 2019 will not be applicable between the two states and the risks shall otherwise continue to apply as set out in the following paragraph.

However, as of the date hereof, the only treaty providing for reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments rendered in connection with civil and commercial disputes between the United Kingdom and Sweden is the Hague Convention of 30 June 2005 on Choice of Court Agreements (the "Hague Convention"). Pursuant to the provisions of the Hague Convention, a judgment entered against a Swedish entity in the courts of a Contracting State (as defined in the Hague Convention) and which is enforceable in such Contracting State, will be directly enforceable in Sweden only upon the satisfaction of certain requirements, one of which is that the relevant judgment relates to an agreement which includes an exclusive choice of court provision (as described in the Hague Convention). As such, a judgement entered against the Issuer based on an asymmetric jurisdiction clause (i.e. a jurisdiction clause which is non-exclusive), as is the case in relation to the terms and conditions of the Notes, is likely to fall outside of the application of the Hague Convention and would most likely not be recognised or enforceable in Sweden as a matter of right without a retrial on its merits. As a result, a final judgment in the courts of England or in any other jurisdiction which does not have an applicable treaty with Sweden providing for reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments relating to the Notes, would most likely not be enforceable in Sweden.

Risks related to the market generally

Set out below is a brief description of certain market risks, including liquidity risk, exchange rate risk, interest rate risk and credit risk.

There is no active trading market for the Notes and the nature of any trading market that may develop may not be favourable.

Notes may have no established trading market when issued, and one may never develop. If a market for the Notes does develop (for example, because the Issuer makes a large allocation to a limited number of investors), it may not be liquid and may be sensitive to changes in financial markets. Therefore, investors may not be able to sell their Notes easily or at prices that will provide them with a yield comparable to similar investments that have a developed secondary market. There is no assurance as to the liquidity of the trading market for the Notes. Even if an active trading market for the Notes develops, the Notes may trade at a discount from their initial offering price. Factors that could cause the Notes to trade at a discount include:

- (i) an increase in prevailing interest rates;
- (ii) a decline in the Issuer's creditworthiness;
- (iii) currency volatility;
- (iv) a weakness in the market for similar securities;
- (v) a decline in general economic conditions;
- (vi) actual or anticipated fluctuations in the Group's operating results; and
- (vii) the Group's perceived business prospects.

This is particularly the case should the Issuer be in financial distress, which may result in any sale of the Notes having to be at a substantial discount to their principal amount or for Notes that are especially sensitive to interest rate, currency or market risks, are designed for specific investment objectives or strategies or have been structured to meet the investment requirements of limited categories of investors. These types of Notes generally would have a more limited secondary market and more price volatility than conventional debt securities. Illiquidity may have a severely adverse effect on the market value of Notes.

Exchange rate risks

The Issuer will pay principal and interest on the Notes in the Specified Currency. This presents certain risks relating to currency conversions if an investor's financial activities are denominated principally in a currency or currency unit (the "Investor's Currency") other than the Specified Currency. These include the risk that exchange rates may significantly change (including changes due to devaluation of the Specified Currency or revaluation of the Investor's Currency) and the risk that authorities with jurisdiction over the Investor's Currency may impose or modify exchange controls. An appreciation in the value of the Investor's Currency relative to the Specified Currency would decrease (i) the Investor's Currency-equivalent yield on the Notes, (ii) the Investor's Currency-equivalent value of the principal payable on the Notes and (iii) the Investor's Currency-equivalent market value of the Notes.

Government and monetary authorities may impose (as some have done in the past) exchange controls that could adversely affect an applicable exchange rate or the ability of the Issuer to make payments in respect of the Notes. As a result, investors may receive less interest or principal than expected, or no interest or principal.

Interest rate risks

Investment in Fixed Rate Notes involves the risk that if market interest rates subsequently increase above the relevant rate paid on the Fixed Rate Notes, this will adversely affect the value of the Fixed Rate Notes.

Credit ratings may not reflect all risks

One or more independent credit rating agencies may assign credit ratings to the Issuer or the Notes. The ratings may not reflect the potential impact of all risks related to structure, market, additional factors discussed above, and other factors that may affect the value of the Notes. A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be revised, suspended or withdrawn by the rating agency at any time.

In general, European regulated investors are restricted under the EU CRA Regulation from using credit ratings for regulatory purposes, unless such ratings are issued by a credit rating agency established in the EU and registered under the EU CRA Regulation (and such registration has not been withdrawn or suspended, subject to transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances). Such general restriction will also apply in the case of credit ratings issued by non-EU credit rating agencies, unless the relevant credit ratings are endorsed by an EU-registered credit rating agency or the relevant non-EU rating agency is certified in accordance with the EU CRA Regulation (and such endorsement action or certification, as the case may be, has not been withdrawn or suspended, subject to transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances). The list of registered and certified rating agencies published by the ESMA on its website in accordance with the EU CRA Regulation is not conclusive evidence of the status of the relevant rating agency included in such list, as there may be delays between certain supervisory measure being taken against a relevant rating agency and the publication of the updated ESMA list. Certain information with respect to the credit rating agencies and ratings will be disclosed in the Final Terms if applicable.

Investors regulated in the UK are subject to similar restrictions under the UK CRA Regulation. As such, UK regulated investors are required to use for UK regulatory purposes ratings issued by a credit rating agency established in the UK and registered under the UK CRA Regulation. In the case of ratings issued by third country non-UK credit rating agencies, third country credit ratings can either be: (a) endorsed by a UK registered credit rating agency; or (b) issued by a third country credit rating agency that is certified in accordance with the UK CRA Regulation. In each case, this is subject to (i) the relevant UK registration, certification or endorsement, as the case may be, not having been withdrawn or suspended, and (ii) transitional provisions that apply in certain circumstances. Furthermore, in the case of third country ratings, for a certain limited period of time, transitional relief accommodates continued use for regulatory purposes in the UK, of existing pre-2021 ratings, provided the relevant conditions are satisfied.

If the status of the rating agency rating the Notes changes for the purposes of the EU CRA Regulation or the UK CRA Regulation, relevant regulated investors may no longer be able to use the rating for regulatory purposes in the EU or the UK, as applicable, and the Notes may have a different regulatory treatment, which may impact the value of the Notes and their liquidity in the secondary market.

Inflation risk

The value of future payments of interest and principal may be reduced as a result of inflation as the real rate of interest on an investment in the Notes will be reduced by rising inflation rates and may be negative if the inflation rate rises above the nominal rate of interest on the Notes.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE NOTES

The following is the text of the terms and conditions that, subject to completion in accordance with the provisions of Part A of the relevant Final Terms, shall be applicable to the Notes in definitive form (if any) issued in exchange for the Global Note(s) or Global Certificate(s) representing each Series. Either (i) the full text of these terms and conditions together with the relevant provisions of Part A of the Final Terms or (ii) these terms and conditions as so completed, amended, supplemented or varied (and subject to simplification by the deletion of non-applicable provisions), shall be endorsed on such Bearer Notes or on the Certificates relating to such Registered Notes. Those definitions will be endorsed on the definitive Notes or Certificates, as the case may be. References in the Conditions to "Notes" are to the Notes of one Series only, not to all Notes that may be issued under the Programme. References in these Conditions to the address of the principal office of the Trustee shall be read to mean "presently at 21 Moorfields, London EC2Y 9DB, United Kingdom".

Notes issued under the Programme are issued in series (each a "Series") and each Series may comprise one or more tranches (each a "Tranche") of Notes. Each Tranche is the subject of a final terms (the "Final Terms") which completes these terms and conditions (the "Conditions"). The Notes are constituted by a Trust Deed (as amended or supplemented as at the date of issue of the Notes (the "Issue Date"), the "Trust Deed") dated 13 June 2025 between the Issuer and Deutsche Trustee Company Limited (the "Trustee", which expression shall include all persons for the time being the trustee or trustees under the Trust Deed) as trustee for the Noteholders (as defined below). These Conditions include summaries of, and are subject to, the detailed provisions of the Trust Deed, which includes the form of the Bearer Notes, Certificates, Coupons and Talons referred to below. An Agency Agreement (as amended or supplemented as at the Issue Date, the "Agency Agreement") dated 13 June 2025 has been entered into in relation to the Notes between the Issuer, the Trustee, Deutsche Bank AG, London Branch as initial issuing and paying agent and the other agents named in it. The issuing and paying agent, the other paying agents, the registrar, the transfer agents and the calculation agent(s) for the time being (if any) are referred to below respectively as the "Issuing and Paying Agent", the "Paying Agents" (which expression shall include the Issuing and Paying Agent), the "Registrar", the "Transfer Agents" (which expression shall include the Registrar) and the "Calculation Agent(s)" (the Paying Agents, the Transfer Agents and the Calculation Agent(s) together, the "Agents"). Copies of the Trust Deed and the Agency Agreement are available for inspection either electronically upon request or during usual business hours at the principal office of the Trustee (presently at 21 Moorfields, London EC2Y 9DB, United Kingdom) and at the specified offices of the Paying Agents and the Transfer Agents.

The Noteholders, the holders of the interest coupons (the "Coupons") relating to interest bearing Notes in bearer form and, where applicable in the case of such Notes, talons for further Coupons (the "Talons") (the "Couponholders") are entitled to the benefit of, are bound by, and are deemed to have notice of, all the provisions of the Trust Deed and are deemed to have notice of those provisions applicable to them of the Agency Agreement.

As used in these Conditions, "Tranche" means Notes which are identical in all respects.

1. Form, Denomination and Title

The Notes are issued in bearer form ("Bearer Notes") or in registered form ("Registered Notes") in each case in the Specified Denomination(s) shown hereon.

This Note is a Fixed Rate Note, a Floating Rate Note, a Zero Coupon Note or a combination of any of the foregoing, depending upon the interest and redemption/payment basis shown hereon.

Bearer Notes are serially numbered and are issued with Coupons (and, where appropriate, a Talon) attached, save in the case of Zero Coupon Notes in which case references to interest (other than in relation to interest due after the Maturity Date), Coupons and Talons in these Conditions are not applicable.

Registered Notes are represented by registered certificates ("Certificates") and, save as provided in Condition 2(c), each Certificate shall represent the entire holding of Registered Notes by the same holder.

Title to the Bearer Notes and the Coupons and Talons shall pass by delivery. Title to the Registered Notes shall pass by registration in the register that the Issuer shall procure to be kept by the Registrar in accordance with the provisions of the Agency Agreement (the "Register"). Except as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction or as required by law, the holder (as defined below) of any Note, Coupon or Talon shall be deemed to be and may be treated as its absolute owner for all purposes whether or not it is overdue and regardless of any notice of ownership, trust or an interest in it, any writing on it (or on the Certificate representing it) or its theft or loss (or that of the related Certificate) and no person shall be liable for so treating the holder.

In these Conditions, "Noteholder" means the bearer of any Bearer Note or the person in whose name a Registered Note is registered (as the case may be), "holder" (in relation to a Note, Coupon or Talon) means the bearer of any Bearer Note, Coupon or Talon or the person in whose name a Registered Note is registered (as the case may be) and capitalised terms have the meanings given to them hereon, the absence of any such meaning indicating that such term is not applicable to the Notes.

2. No Exchange of Notes and Transfers of Registered Notes

- (a) No Exchange of Notes: Registered Notes may not be exchanged for Bearer Notes. Bearer Notes of one Specified Denomination may not be exchanged for Bearer Notes of another Specified Denomination. Bearer Notes may not be exchanged for Registered Notes.
- (b) Transfer of Registered Notes: One or more Registered Notes may be transferred upon the surrender (at the specified office of the Registrar or any Transfer Agent) of the Certificate representing such Registered Notes to be transferred, together with the form of transfer endorsed on such Certificate, (or another form of transfer substantially in the same form and containing the same representations and certifications (if any), unless otherwise agreed by the Issuer), duly completed and executed and any other evidence as the Registrar or Transfer Agent may reasonably require. In the case of a transfer of part only of a holding of Registered Notes represented by one Certificate, a new Certificate shall be issued to the transferee in respect of the part transferred and a further new Certificate in respect of the balance of the holding not transferred shall be issued to the transferor. All transfers of Notes and entries on the Register will be made subject to the detailed regulations concerning transfers of Notes scheduled to the Agency Agreement. The regulations may be changed by the Issuer, with the prior written approval of the Registrar and the Trustee. A copy of the current regulations will be made available by the Registrar to any Noteholder upon request.
- (c) Exercise of Options or Partial Redemption in Respect of Registered Notes: In the case of an exercise of an Issuer's or Noteholders' option in respect of, or a partial redemption of, a holding of Registered Notes represented by a single Certificate, a new Certificate shall be issued to the holder to reflect the exercise of such option or in respect of the balance of the holding not redeemed. In the case of a partial exercise of an option resulting in Registered Notes of the same holding having different terms, separate Certificates shall be issued in respect of those Notes of that holding that have the same terms. New Certificates shall only be issued against surrender of the existing Certificates to the Registrar or any Transfer Agent. In the case of a transfer of Registered Notes to a person who is already a holder of Registered Notes, a new Certificate representing the enlarged holding shall only be issued against surrender of the Certificate representing the existing holding.
- (d) Delivery of New Certificates: Each new Certificate to be issued pursuant to Conditions 2(b) or (c) shall be available for delivery within three business days of receipt of the form of transfer or Exercise Notice (as defined in Condition 7(e)) and surrender of the Certificate for exchange. Delivery of the new Certificate(s) shall be made at the specified office of the Transfer Agent or of the Registrar (as the case may be) to whom delivery or surrender of such form of transfer, Exercise Notice or Certificate shall have been made or, at the option of the holder making such delivery or surrender as aforesaid and as specified in the relevant form of transfer, Exercise Notice or otherwise in writing, be mailed by uninsured post at the risk of the holder entitled to the new Certificate to such address as may be so specified, unless such holder requests otherwise and pays in advance to the relevant Transfer Agent the costs of such other method of delivery and/or such insurance as it may specify. In this Condition 2(d), "business day" means a day, other than a Saturday or Sunday, on which banks are open for business in the place of the specified office of the relevant Transfer Agent or the Registrar (as the case may be).

- (e) Transfers Free of Charge: Transfers of Notes and Certificates on registration, transfer, exercise of an option or partial redemption shall be effected without charge by or on behalf of the Issuer, the Registrar or the Transfer Agents, but upon payment of any tax or other governmental charges that may be imposed in relation to it (or the giving of such indemnity as the Registrar or the relevant Transfer Agent may require).
- (f) Closed Periods: No Noteholder may require the transfer of a Registered Note to be registered (i) during the period of 15 days prior to any date on which Notes may be called for redemption by the Issuer at its option pursuant to Condition 7(d), (ii) after any such Note has been called for redemption or (iii) during the period of seven days ending on (and including) any Record Date.

3. Status

The Notes and any Coupons relating to them constitute (subject to Condition 4) unsecured obligations of the Issuer and shall at all times rank pari passu and without any preference among themselves. The payment obligations of the Issuer under the Notes and any Coupons relating to them shall, save for such exceptions as may be provided by applicable legislation and subject to Condition 4, at all times rank at least equally with all other unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer, present and future.

4. Negative Pledge

So long as any of the Notes remains outstanding, the Issuer undertakes that it will not, and it will procure that none of its Material Subsidiaries will, create, assume or permit to subsist, as security for any Financial Indebtedness, any Security other than any Permitted Security upon, or with respect to, the whole or any part of any of its present or future business, undertaking, assets or revenues (including any uncalled capital), unless, in any such case, the Issuer and/or the relevant Material Subsidiary, as the case may be, shall simultaneously with, or prior to, the creation or assumption of such Security and, in any other case, promptly, take any and all action necessary to procure that all amounts payable under the Notes by the Issuer are secured equally and rateably therewith to the satisfaction of the Trustee or that such other Security is provided or such other arrangement (whether or not including the giving of Security) is made as the Trustee shall, in its absolute discretion, deem not materially less beneficial to the interests of the Noteholders or as shall be approved by an Extraordinary Resolution (as defined in the Trust Deed) of the Noteholders.

5. Limitation of Indebtedness

- (a) Limitation of Indebtedness: So long as any of the Notes remain outstanding, the Issuer undertakes that it will not, and will procure that none of its Material Subsidiaries will, after the Issue Date, incur any additional Financial Indebtedness (except for any Permitted Financial Indebtedness) if, on the date of the incurrence of such additional Financial Indebtedness (the "Incurrence Date"), immediately after giving effect to the incurrence of such additional Financial Indebtedness (taking into account the application of the net proceeds of such incurrence) the Interest Cover Ratio would be less than 2.0 to 1.0 (the "Limitation of Indebtedness Covenant").
- (b) Suspension of Limitation of Indebtedness: If on any date following the Issue Date of the first Tranche of the Notes:
 - (i) the Issuer receives an Investment Grade Rating from any Rating Agency; and
 - (ii) no Event of Default (as defined in Condition 11) has occurred and is continuing under these Conditions (the foregoing conditions in (i) and (ii) being referred to collectively as the "Suspension Condition"), then, beginning on that day, and subject to the provisions of Condition 5(c), Condition 5(a) of these Conditions will cease to be effective and will not be applicable to the Issuer and its Material Subsidiaries.

- (c) Reinstatement: Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Issuer and its Material Subsidiaries are not subject to the Limitation of Indebtedness Covenant with respect to the Notes for any period of time as a result of the Suspension Condition having been met and, subsequently, the Issuer ceases to have an Investment Grade Rating from any Rating Agency, then the Issuer and its Material Subsidiaries will again be subject to the Limitation of Indebtedness Covenant in Condition 5(a). Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of any such reinstatement of the Limitation of Indebtedness Covenant in Condition 5(a), no action taken or omitted to be taken by the Issuer or any Material Subsidiary prior to such reinstatement will give rise to any default or event of default under these Conditions, and all Financial Indebtedness incurred during the period (the "Suspension Period") from an Investment Grade Status Commencement Date to the relevant Investment Grade Status End Date, will be classified to have been incurred pursuant to clause (c) of the definition of "Permitted Financial Indebtedness". In addition, in the event of any such reinstatement, the Issuer and its Material Subsidiaries will be permitted, without causing a default or event of default under these Conditions, to honour any contractual commitments or take any actions, as long as the contractual commitments were entered into during the Suspension Period and not in anticipation of the occurrence of an Investment Grade Status End Date.

6. Interest and other Calculations

- (a) Interest on Fixed Rate Notes: Each Fixed Rate Note bears interest on its outstanding nominal amount from the Interest Commencement Date at the rate per annum (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Rate of Interest, such interest being payable in arrear on each Interest Payment Date. The amount of interest payable shall be determined in accordance with Condition 6(f).
- (b) Interest on Floating Rate Notes:
- (i) Interest Payment Dates: Each Floating Rate Note bears interest on its outstanding nominal amount from the Interest Commencement Date at the rate per annum (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Rate of Interest, such interest being payable in arrear on each Interest Payment Date. The amount of interest payable shall be determined in accordance with Condition 6(f). Such Interest Payment Date(s) is/are either shown hereon as Specified Interest Payment Dates or, if no Specified Interest Payment Date(s) is/are shown hereon, Interest Payment Date shall mean each date which falls the number of months or other period shown hereon as the Interest Period after the preceding Interest Payment Date or, in the case of the first Interest Payment Date, after the Interest Commencement Date.
- (ii) Business Day Convention: If any date referred to in these Conditions that is specified to be subject to adjustment in accordance with a Business Day Convention would otherwise fall on a day that is not a Business Day, then, if the business day convention (the "Business Day Convention") specified is (A) the floating rate business day convention (the "Floating Rate Business Day Convention"), such date shall be postponed to the next day that is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event (x) such date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day and (y) each subsequent such date shall be the last Business Day of the month in which such date would have fallen had it not been subject to adjustment, (B) the following business day convention (the "Following Business Day Convention"), such date shall be postponed to the next day that is a Business Day, (C) the modified following business day convention (the "Modified Following Business Day Convention"), such date shall be postponed to the next day that is a Business Day unless it would thereby fall into the next calendar month, in which event such date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day or (D) the preceding business day convention (the "Preceding Business Day"), such date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day.

Convention"), such date shall be brought forward to the immediately preceding Business Day.

- (iii) Rate of Interest: The Rate of Interest in respect of Floating Rate Notes for each Interest Accrual Period shall be determined in accordance with the Screen Rate Determination provisions below.

(A) Screen Rate Determination

- (x) Where Screen Rate Determination is specified hereon as the manner in which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Accrual Period will, subject as provided below, be either:

- (1) the offered quotation; or
- (2) the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations,

(expressed as a percentage rate per annum) for the Reference Rate which appears or appear, as the case may be, on the Relevant Screen Page as at either 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time in the case of EURIBOR or Stockholm time in the case of STIBOR) on the Interest Determination Date in question as determined by the Calculation Agent. If five or more of such offered quotations are available on the Relevant Screen Page, the highest (or, if there is more than one such highest quotation, one only of such quotations) and the lowest (or, if there is more than one such lowest quotation, one only of such quotations) shall be disregarded by the Calculation Agent for the purpose of determining the arithmetic mean of such offered quotations.

- (y) if the Relevant Screen Page is not available or if, sub-paragraph (x)(1) applies and no such offered quotation appears on the Relevant Screen Page or if sub-paragraph (x)(2) above applies and fewer than three such offered quotations appear on the Relevant Screen Page in each case as at the time specified above, subject as provided below, the Issuer (or an independent investment bank, commercial bank or stockbroker appointed by the Issuer) shall request, (i) if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR, the principal Euro-zone office of each of the Reference Banks or (ii) if the Reference Rate is STIBOR, the principal Swedish office of each of the Reference Banks to provide the Calculation Agent with its offered quotation (expressed as a percentage rate per annum) for the Reference Rate if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR, at approximately 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time) or, if the Reference Rate is STIBOR, at approximately 11.00 a.m. (Stockholm time) on the Interest Determination Date in question. If two or more of the Reference Banks provide the Calculation Agent with such offered quotations, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Accrual Period shall be the arithmetic mean of such offered quotations as determined by the Calculation Agent; and

- (z) if paragraph (y) above applies and the Issuer (or an independent investment bank, commercial bank or stockbroker appointed by the Issuer) determines that fewer than two Reference Banks are providing offered quotations, subject as provided below, the Rate of Interest shall be the arithmetic mean of the rates per annum (expressed as a percentage) as communicated to the Calculation Agent (at the request of the Issuer (or an independent investment bank, commercial bank or stockbroker appointed by the Issuer)) by the Reference Banks or any two or more of them, at which such banks were offered, if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR, at approximately 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time) or, if the Reference Rate is STIBOR, at approximately 11.00 a.m. (Stockholm time) on the relevant Interest Determination Date, deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate by leading banks in, if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR, the Euro-zone inter-bank market, or, if the Reference Rate is STIBOR, the Swedish inter-bank market, as the case may be, or, if fewer than two of the Reference Banks provide the Calculation Agent with such offered rates, the offered rate for deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate, or the arithmetic mean of the offered rates for deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate, at which, if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR, at approximately 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time) or, if the Reference Rate is STIBOR, at approximately 11.00 a.m. (Stockholm time) on the relevant Interest Determination Date, any one or more banks (which bank or banks is or are in the opinion of the Issuer suitable for such purpose) informs the Issuer it is quoting to leading banks in, if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR, the Euro-zone inter-bank market or, if the Reference Rate is STIBOR, the Swedish inter-bank market, as the case may be, provided that, if the Rate of Interest cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, the Rate of Interest shall be determined as at the last preceding Interest Determination Date (though substituting, where a different Margin or Maximum or Minimum Rate of Interest is to be applied to the relevant Interest Accrual Period from that which applied to the last preceding Interest Accrual Period, the Margin or Maximum or Minimum Rate of Interest relating to the relevant Interest Accrual Period, in place of the Margin or Maximum or Minimum Rate of Interest relating to that last preceding Interest Accrual Period).

(B) Linear Interpolation

Where Linear Interpolation is specified hereon as applicable in respect of an Interest Accrual Period, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Accrual Period shall be calculated by the Calculation Agent by straight line linear interpolation by reference to two rates based on the relevant Reference Rate, one of which shall be determined as if the Applicable Maturity were the period of time for which rates are available next shorter than the length of the relevant Interest Accrual Period and the other of which shall be determined as if the Applicable Maturity were the period of time for which rates are available next longer than the length of the relevant Interest Accrual Period provided however that if there is no rate available for the period of time next shorter or, as the case may be, next longer, then the Calculation Agent shall determine such rate at such time and by reference to such sources as it determines appropriate.

"Applicable Maturity" means: the period of time designated in the Reference Rate.

- (c) Zero Coupon Notes: Where a Note the Interest Basis of which is specified to be a Zero Coupon Note is repayable prior to the Maturity Date and is not paid when due, the amount due and payable prior to the Maturity Date shall be the Early Redemption Amount of such Note. As from the Maturity Date, the Rate of Interest for any overdue principal of such a Note shall be a rate per annum (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Amortisation Yield (as described in Condition 7(b)(i)).

- (d) Accrual of Interest: Interest shall cease to accrue on each Note on the due date for redemption unless, upon due presentation, payment is improperly withheld or refused, in which event interest shall continue to accrue (both before and after judgment) at the Rate of Interest in the manner provided in this Condition 6 to the Relevant Date.
- (e) Margin, Maximum/Minimum Rates of Interest, Redemption Amounts and Rounding:
- (i) If any Margin is specified hereon (either (x) generally, or (y) in relation to one or more Interest Accrual Periods), an adjustment shall be made to all Rates of Interest, in the case of (x), or the Rates of Interest for the specified Interest Accrual Periods, in the case of (y), calculated in accordance with Condition 6(b) above by adding (if a positive number) or subtracting the absolute value (if a negative number) of such Margin, subject always to the next paragraph.
 - (ii) If any Maximum or Minimum Rate of Interest or Redemption Amount is specified hereon, then any Rate of Interest or Redemption Amount shall be subject to such maximum or minimum, as the case may be.
 - (iii) For the purposes of any calculations required pursuant to these Conditions (unless otherwise specified), (x) all percentages resulting from such calculations shall be rounded, if necessary, to the nearest one hundred-thousandth of a percentage point (with 0.000005 of a percentage point being rounded up), (y) all figures shall be rounded to seven significant figures (provided that if the eighth significant figure is a 5 or greater, the seventh significant shall be rounded up) and (z) all currency amounts that fall due and payable shall be rounded to the nearest unit of such currency (with half a unit being rounded up), save in the case of yen, which shall be rounded down to the nearest yen. For these purposes "unit" means the lowest amount of such currency that is available as legal tender in the countries of such currency.
- (f) Calculations: The amount of interest payable per Calculation Amount in respect of any Note for any Interest Accrual Period shall be equal to the product of the Rate of Interest, the Calculation Amount specified hereon, and the Day Count Fraction for such Interest Accrual Period, unless an Interest Amount (or a formula for its calculation) is applicable to such Interest Accrual Period, in which case the amount of interest payable per Calculation Amount in respect of such Note for such Interest Accrual Period shall equal such Interest Amount (or be calculated in accordance with such formula). Where any Interest Period comprises two or more Interest Accrual Periods, the amount of interest payable per Calculation Amount in respect of such Interest Period shall be the sum of the Interest Amounts payable in respect of each of those Interest Accrual Periods. In respect of any other period for which interest is required to be calculated, the provisions above shall apply save that the Day Count Fraction shall be for the period for which interest is required to be calculated.
- (g) Determination and Publication of Rates of Interest, Interest Amounts, Final Redemption Amounts, Early Redemption Amounts and Optional Redemption Amounts: The Calculation Agent shall, as soon as practicable on each Interest Determination Date, or such other time on such date as the Calculation Agent may be required to calculate any rate or amount, obtain any quotation or make any determination or calculation, determine such rate and calculate the Interest Amounts for the relevant Interest Accrual Period, calculate the Final Redemption Amount, Early Redemption Amount, Optional Redemption Amount (Call) or Optional Redemption Amount, obtain such quotation or make such determination or calculation, as the case may be, and cause the Rate of Interest and the Interest Amounts for each Interest Accrual Period and the relevant Interest Payment Date and, if required to be calculated, the Final Redemption Amount, Early Redemption Amount, Optional Redemption Amount (Call), Optional Redemption Amount to be notified to the Trustee, the Issuer, each of the Paying Agents, the Noteholders, any other Calculation Agent appointed in respect of the Notes that is to make a further calculation upon receipt of such information and, if the Notes are listed on a stock exchange and the rules of such exchange or other relevant authority so require, such exchange or other relevant authority as soon as possible after their determination but in no event later than (i) the commencement of the relevant Interest Period, if determined prior to such time, in the case of notification to such exchange of a Rate of Interest and Interest Amount, or (ii) in all other cases, the fourth Business Day after such determination. Where any Interest Payment Date or Interest Period Date is subject to adjustment pursuant to Condition 6(b)(ii), the Interest Amounts and the Interest Payment Date so published may subsequently be amended (or appropriate alternative arrangements made with the consent of the Trustee by way of adjustment) without notice in the event of an extension or shortening of the Interest Period. If the Notes become due and payable under Condition 11, the accrued interest and the Rate of Interest payable in respect of the Notes shall nevertheless continue to be calculated as previously in accordance with this Condition but no publication of the Rate of Interest or the Interest Amount so calculated need be made unless the Trustee otherwise requires. The determination of any rate or amount, the obtaining of each quotation and the making of each determination or calculation by the Calculation Agent(s) shall (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding upon all parties.

- (h) Calculation Agent: The Issuer shall procure that there shall at all times be one or more Calculation Agents if provision is made for them hereon and for so long as any Note is outstanding (as defined in the Trust Deed). Where more than one Calculation Agent is appointed in respect of the Notes, references in these Conditions to the Calculation Agent shall be construed as each Calculation Agent performing its respective duties under the Conditions. If the Calculation Agent is unable or unwilling to act as such or if the Calculation Agent fails duly to establish the Rate of Interest for an Interest Accrual Period or to calculate any Interest Amount, Final Redemption Amount, Early Redemption Amount, Optional Redemption Amount (Call) or Optional Redemption Amount, as the case may be, or to comply with any other requirement, the Issuer shall (with the prior written approval of the Trustee) appoint a leading bank or financial institution engaged in the interbank market (or, if appropriate, money, swap or over-the-counter index options market) that is most closely connected with the calculation or determination to be made by the Calculation Agent (acting through its principal London office or any other office actively involved in such market) to act as such in its place. The Calculation Agent may not resign its duties without a successor having been appointed as aforesaid.

- (i) Benchmark Discontinuation:

(i) Independent Adviser

If a Benchmark Event occurs in relation to an Original Reference Rate when any Rate of Interest (or any component part thereof) remains to be determined by reference to such Original Reference Rate, the Issuer shall use its reasonable endeavours to appoint and consult with an Independent Adviser, as soon as reasonably practicable, to advise the Issuer in determining a Successor Rate, failing which an Alternative Rate (in accordance with Condition 6(i)(ii)) and, in either case, an Adjustment Spread and any Benchmark Amendments (in accordance with Condition 6(i)(iv)).

In making such determination, the Independent Adviser shall act in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner as an expert and (in the absence of bad faith or fraud) shall have no liability whatsoever to the Issuer, the Trustee, the Paying Agents, the Noteholders or the Couponholders for any determination made by it or for any advice given to the Issuer in connection with any determination made by the Issuer, pursuant to this Condition 6(i).

If (i) the Issuer is unable to appoint an Independent Adviser; or (ii) the Issuer fails to determine a Successor Rate or, failing which, an Alternative Rate in accordance with this Condition 6(i) prior to the relevant Interest Determination Date, the Rate of Interest applicable to the next succeeding Interest Accrual Period shall be equal to the Rate of Interest last determined in relation to the Notes in respect of the immediately preceding Interest Accrual Period. If there has not been a first Interest Payment Date, the Rate of Interest shall be the initial Rate of Interest. Where a different Margin or Maximum or Minimum Rate of Interest is to be applied to the relevant Interest Accrual Period from that which applied to the last preceding Interest Accrual Period, the Margin or Maximum or Minimum Rate of Interest relating to the relevant Interest Accrual Period shall be substituted in place of the Margin or Maximum or Minimum Rate of Interest relating to that last preceding Interest Accrual Period. For the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph shall apply to the relevant next succeeding Interest Accrual Period only and any subsequent Interest Accrual Periods are subject to the subsequent operation of, and to adjustment as provided in, the first paragraph of this Condition 6(i).

(ii) Successor Rate or Alternative Rate

If the Issuer, following consultation with the Independent Adviser, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner determines that:

- (A) there is a Successor Rate, then such Successor Rate and the applicable Adjustment Spread shall subsequently be used in place of the Original Reference Rate to determine the Rate of Interest (or the relevant component part thereof) for all future payments of interest on the Notes (subject to the operation of this Condition 6(i)); or
- (B) there is no Successor Rate but that there is an Alternative Rate, then such Alternative Rate and the applicable Adjustment Spread shall subsequently be used in place of the Original Reference Rate to determine the Rate of Interest (or the relevant component part thereof) for all future payments of interest on the Notes (subject to the operation of this Condition 6(i)).

(iii) Adjustment Spread

The Adjustment Spread (or the formula or methodology for determining, the Adjustment Spread) shall be applied to the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be).

(iv) Benchmark Amendments

If any Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and, in either case, the applicable Adjustment Spread is determined in accordance with this Condition 6(i) and the Issuer, following consultation with the Independent Adviser and acting in good faith and in commercially reasonable manner determines (i) that amendments to these Conditions and/or the Trust Deed are necessary to ensure the proper operation of such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and/or (in either case) the applicable Adjustment Spread (such amendments, the "Benchmark Amendments") and (ii) the terms of the Benchmark Amendments, then the Issuer shall, subject to giving notice thereof in accordance with Condition 6(i)(v), without any requirement for the consent or approval of Noteholders, vary these Conditions and/or the Trust Deed to give effect to such Benchmark Amendments with effect from the date specified in such notice.

At the request of the Issuer, but subject to receipt by the Trustee of a certificate signed by two authorised signatories of the Issuer pursuant to Condition 6(i)(v), the Trustee shall (at the expense of the Issuer), without any requirement for the consent or approval of the Noteholders, be obliged to concur with the Issuer in effecting any Benchmark Amendments (including, inter alia, by the execution of a deed supplemental to or amending the Trust Deed), provided that the Trustee shall not be obliged so to concur if in the opinion of the Trustee doing so would impose more onerous obligations upon it or expose it to any additional duties, responsibilities or liabilities or reduce or amend the protective provisions afforded to the Trustee in these Conditions or the Trust Deed (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any supplemental trust deed) in any way.

In connection with any such variation in accordance with this Condition 6(i)(iv), the Issuer shall comply with the rules of any stock exchange on which the Notes are for the time being listed or admitted to trading.

(v) Notices, etc.

Any Successor Rate, Alternative Rate, Adjustment Spread and the specific terms of any Benchmark Amendments, determined under this Condition 6(i) will be notified promptly by the Issuer to the Trustee, the Calculation Agent, the Paying Agents and, in accordance with Condition 18, the Noteholders. Such notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the effective date of the Benchmark Amendments, if any.

No later than notifying the Trustee of the same, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee a certificate signed by two authorised signatories of the Issuer confirming (a)(i) that a Benchmark Event has occurred, (ii) the Successor Rate or, as the case may be, the Alternative Rate, (iii) the applicable Adjustment Spread and (iv) the specific terms of the Benchmark Amendments (if any), in each case as determined in accordance with the provisions of this Condition 6(i), and (b) certifying that the Benchmark Amendments (if any) are, in the Issuer's opinion (following consultation with the Independent Adviser and acting in good faith), necessary to ensure the proper operation of such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and (in either case) the applicable Adjustment Spread.

The Trustee shall be entitled to rely on such certificate (without liability to any person) as sufficient evidence thereof. The Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and the Adjustment Spread and the Benchmark Amendments (if any) specified in such certificate will (in the absence of manifest error or bad faith in the determination of the Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and the Adjustment Spread and the Benchmark Amendments (if any) and without prejudice to the Trustee's ability to rely on such certificate as aforesaid) be binding on the Issuer, the Trustee, the Calculation Agent, the Paying Agents and the Noteholders.

(vi) Survival of Original Reference Rate

Without prejudice to the obligations of the Issuer under Conditions 6(i)(i), (ii), (iii) and (iv), the Original Reference Rate and the fallback provisions provided for in Conditions 6(b)(iii)(B)(y) and (z) will continue to apply unless and until a Benchmark Event has occurred.

7. Redemption, Purchase and Options

- (a) Final Redemption: Unless previously redeemed, purchased and cancelled as provided below, each Note shall be finally redeemed on the Maturity Date specified hereon at its Final Redemption Amount (which, unless otherwise provided hereon, is its nominal amount).

- (b) Early Redemption:

(i) Zero Coupon Notes:

- (A) The Early Redemption Amount payable in respect of any Zero Coupon Note upon redemption of such Note pursuant to Condition 7(c), Condition 7(d) or Condition 7(e) or upon it becoming due and payable as provided in Condition 11 shall be the amortised face amount (calculated as provided below) (the "Amortised Face Amount") of such Note unless otherwise specified hereon.

- (B) Subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (C) below, the Amortised Face Amount of any such Note shall be the scheduled Final Redemption Amount of such Note on the Maturity Date discounted at a rate per annum (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Amortisation Yield (which, if none is shown hereon, shall be such rate as would produce an Amortised Face Amount equal to the issue price of the Notes if they were discounted back to their issue price on the Issue Date) compounded annually.

- (C) If the Early Redemption Amount payable in respect of any such Note upon its redemption pursuant to Condition 7(c), Condition 7(d) or Condition 7(e) or upon it becoming due and payable as provided in Condition 11 is not paid when due, the Early Redemption Amount due and payable in respect of such Note shall be the Amortised Face Amount of such Note as defined in sub-paragraph (B) above, except that such sub-paragraph shall have effect as though the date on which the Note becomes due and payable were the Relevant Date. The calculation of the Amortised Face Amount in accordance with this sub-paragraph shall continue to be made (both before and after judgment) until the Relevant Date, unless the Relevant Date falls on or after the Maturity Date, in which case the amount due and payable shall be the scheduled Final Redemption Amount of such Note on the Maturity Date together with any interest that may accrue in accordance with Condition 6(c).

Where such calculation is to be made for a period of less than one year, it shall be made on the basis of the Day Count Fraction shown hereon.

- (ii) Other Notes: The Early Redemption Amount payable in respect of any Note (other than Notes described in (i) above), upon redemption of such Note pursuant to Condition 7(c) or Condition 7(e) or upon it becoming due and payable as provided in Condition 11, shall be the Final Redemption Amount unless otherwise specified hereon.
- (c) Redemption for Taxation Reasons: The Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole, but not in part, on any Interest Payment Date (if this Note is a Floating Rate Note) or at any time (if this Note is not a Floating Rate Note), on giving not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' notice to the Noteholders (which notice shall be irrevocable) at their Early Redemption Amount (as described in Condition 7(b) above) (together with interest accrued to the date fixed for redemption), if (i) the Issuer satisfies the Trustee immediately before the giving of such notice that it has or will become obliged to pay additional amounts as described under Condition 9 as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the laws or regulations of Sweden or any political subdivision or any authority thereof or therein having power to tax, or any change in the application or official interpretation of such laws or regulations (including a holding by a court of competent jurisdiction), which change or amendment becomes effective on or after the issue date of the first Tranche of the Notes, and (ii) such obligation cannot be avoided by the Issuer taking reasonable measures available to it, provided that no such notice of redemption shall be given earlier than 90 days prior to the earliest date on which the Issuer would be obliged to pay such additional amounts were a payment in respect of the Notes then due. Prior to the publication of any notice of redemption pursuant to this Condition 7(c), the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee a certificate signed by two authorised signatories of the Issuer stating that the obligation referred to in (i) above cannot be avoided by the Issuer taking reasonable measures available to it and the Trustee shall be entitled to accept and rely without liability upon such certificate as sufficient evidence of the satisfaction of the condition precedent set out in (ii) above, in which event it shall be conclusive and binding on Noteholders and Couponholders.
- (d) Redemption at the Option of the Issuer: If Call Option is specified hereon, the Issuer may, on giving not less than 15 nor more than 30 days' irrevocable notice to the Noteholders (or such other notice period as may be specified hereon) (the "Call Option Notice") redeem all or, if so provided, some of the Notes on any Optional Redemption Date. Any such redemption of Notes shall be at their Optional Redemption Amount (Call), together with interest accrued to the date fixed for redemption. Any such redemption must relate to Notes of a nominal amount at least equal to the Minimum Redemption Amount to be redeemed specified hereon and no greater than the Maximum Redemption Amount to be redeemed specified hereon.

All Notes in respect of which a Call Option Notice is given shall be redeemed on the date specified in the Call Option Notice in accordance with this Condition.

In the case of a partial redemption the Call Option Notice shall also contain the certificate numbers of the Bearer Notes, or in the case of Registered Notes shall specify the nominal amount of Registered Notes drawn and the holder(s) of such Registered Notes, to be redeemed, which shall have been drawn in such place and in such manner as shall be reasonable and appropriate, subject to compliance with any applicable laws and stock exchange or other relevant authority requirements.

The "Make Whole Redemption Price" will, in respect of any Note, be:

- (A) if "Sterling Make Whole Redemption Amount" is specified as being applicable in the relevant Final Terms, an amount equal to the higher of (i) 100 per cent. of the principal amount of such Note to be redeemed and (ii) the principal amount of such Note to be redeemed multiplied by the price (expressed as a percentage), as reported in writing to the Issuer by the Determination Agent, at which the Gross Redemption Yield on such Note at the Reference Date is equal to the Gross Redemption Yield at the Quotation Time on the Reference Date of the Reference Bond, plus the Redemption Margin (if any); or
- (B) if "Non-Sterling Make Whole Redemption Amount" is specified as being applicable in the relevant Final Terms, an amount equal to the higher of (i) 100 per cent. of the principal amount of such Note to be redeemed and (ii) the principal amount of such Note to be redeemed multiplied by the price (expressed as a percentage), as reported in writing to the Issuer by the Determination Agent, at which the yield to maturity (or, if Par Call Commitment Date is specified in the applicable Final Terms, to the Par Call Commencement Date) on such Note on the Reference Date is equal to the Reference Bond Rate at the Quotation Time on the Reference Date, plus the Redemption Margin (if any),

all as determined by the Determination Agent.

Where the Make-Whole Redemption Amount is specified in the Final Terms any such notice of redemption may, at the Issuer's discretion, be subject to one or more conditions precedent, in which case such notice shall state that, in the Issuer's discretion, the Optional Redemption Date (Call) may be delayed until such time as any or all such conditions shall be satisfied (or waived by the Issuer in its sole discretion), or such redemption may not occur and such notice may be rescinded in the event that any or all such conditions shall not have been satisfied (or waived by the Issuer in its sole discretion) by the Optional Redemption Date (Call), or by the Optional Redemption Date (Call) so delayed. The Issuer shall notified the Agents, the Trustee and the Noteholders no later than three business days in advance of the Optional Redemption Date (Call) that the Optional Redemption Date (Call) is delayed and as soon as practicable thereafter but no later than three business days in advance of such delayed Optional Redemption Date (Call) of any such delayed Optional Redemption Date (Call) and shall notify the Agents, the Trustee and the Noteholders of any such rescission of its notice of redemption no less than three business days prior to such Optional Redemption Date (Call) or Optional Redemption Date (Call) so delayed.

- (e) Redemption at the Option of Noteholders: If Put Option is specified hereon, the Issuer shall, at the option of the holder of any such Note, upon the holder of such Note giving not less than 15 nor more than 30 days' notice to the Issuer (or such other notice period as may be specified hereon) redeem such Note on the Optional Redemption Date(s) at its Optional Redemption Amount specified hereon (which may be the Early Redemption Amount (as described in Condition 7(b) above)), together with interest accrued to the date fixed for redemption.

To exercise such option the holder must deposit (in the case of Bearer Notes) such Note (together with all unmatured Coupons and unexchanged Talons) with any Paying Agent or (in the case of Registered Notes) the Certificate representing such Note(s) with the Registrar or any Transfer Agent at its specified office, together with a duly completed option exercise notice ("Exercise Notice") in the form obtainable from any Paying Agent, the Registrar or any Transfer Agent (as applicable) within the notice period. No Note or Certificate so deposited and option exercised may be withdrawn (except as provided in the Agency Agreement) without the prior consent of the Issuer.

- (f) Redemption at the Option of Noteholders (Change of Control): If Change of Control Put Event is specified hereon and a Change of Control Put Event occurs, the holder of any such Note will have the option (a "Change of Control Put Option") (unless prior to the giving of the relevant Change of Control Put Event Notice the Issuer has given notice of redemption under Condition 7(c) or 7(d) above) to require the Issuer to redeem or, at the Issuer's option, purchase (or procure the purchase of) that Note on the Change of Control Put Date (as defined below) at its principal amount together with interest accrued to (but excluding) the Change of Control Put Date.

A "Change of Control Put Event" will be deemed to occur if:

- (i) any person or any persons acting in concert (the "Relevant Person") acquire(s)
 - (A) more than 50 per cent. of the issued or allotted ordinary share capital of the Issuer or (B) shares in the capital of the Issuer carrying more than 50 per cent. of the voting rights normally exercisable at a general meeting of the Issuer (each such event being, a "Change of Control"), provided that a Change of Control shall be deemed not to have occurred if all or substantially all of the shareholders of the Relevant Person are, or immediately prior to the event which would otherwise have constituted a Change of Control were, the shareholders of the Issuer with the same (or substantially the same) pro rata interest in the share capital of the Relevant Person as such shareholders have, or as the case may be, had in the share capital of the Issuer;
- (ii) on the date (the "Relevant Announcement Date") that is the earlier of (1) the date of the first public announcement of the relevant Change of Control and (2) the date of the earliest Relevant Potential Change of Control Announcement (if any), the Notes carry:
 - (A) an investment grade credit rating (Baa3/BBB-, or their respective equivalents, or better), from any Rating Agency and such rating is, within the Change of Control Period, either downgraded to a non-investment grade credit rating (Ba1/BB+, or their respective equivalents, or worse) (a "Non-Investment Grade Rating") or withdrawn and is not, within the Change of Control Period, subsequently (in the case of a downgrade) upgraded or (in the case of a withdrawal) reinstated to an investment grade credit rating by such Rating Agency; or
 - (B) a Non-Investment Grade Rating from any Rating Agency and such rating is, within the Change of Control Period, either downgraded by one or more rating categories (from Ba1 to Ba2 being or such similar lowering) or withdrawn and is not, within the Change of Control Period, subsequently (in the case of a downgrade) upgraded or (in the case of a withdrawal) reinstated to its earlier credit rating or better by such Rating Agency; or
 - (C) no credit rating and a Negative Rating Event also occurs within the Change of Control Period, provided that if, on the Relevant Announcement Date, the Notes carry a credit rating from more than one Rating Agency, at least one of which is investment grade, then sub paragraph (A) will apply; and

- (iii) in making any decision to downgrade or withdraw a credit rating pursuant to paragraphs (A) and (B) above or not to award a credit rating of at least investment grade as described in paragraph (ii) of the definition of Negative Rating Event, the relevant Rating Agency announces publicly or confirms in writing to the Issuer that such decision(s) resulted, in whole or in part, from the occurrence of the Change of Control or the Relevant Potential Change of Control Announcement.

If the rating designations employed by any of Moody's, Fitch or S&P are changed from those which are described in paragraph (ii) of the definition of "Change of Control Put Event" above, or if a rating is procured from a Substitute Rating Agency, the Issuer shall determine, the rating designations of Moody's, Fitch or S&P or such Substitute Rating Agency (as appropriate) as are most equivalent to the prior rating designations of Moody's, Fitch or S&P and this Condition 7(f) shall be construed accordingly.

Promptly upon the Issuer becoming aware that a Change of Control Put Event has occurred the Issuer shall give notice (a "Change of Control Put Event Notice") to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 18 specifying the nature of the Change of Control Put Event and the procedure for exercising the Change of Control Put Option.

To exercise the Change of Control Put Option, the holder of a Bearer Note must deliver such Note to the specified office of any Paying Agent at any time during normal business hours of such Paying Agent falling within the period (the "Change of Control Put Period") of 30 days after a Change of Control Put Event Notice is given, accompanied by a duly signed and completed notice of exercise in the form (for the time being current) obtainable from the specified office of any Paying Agent (a "Change of Control Put Notice"). The Note should be delivered together with all Coupons appertaining thereto maturing after the date which is seven days after the expiration of the Change of Control Put Period (the "Change of Control Put Date"), failing which the Paying Agent will require payment from or on behalf of the Noteholder of an amount equal to the face value of any missing such Coupon. Any amount so paid will be reimbursed to the Noteholder against presentation and surrender of the relevant missing Coupon (or any replacement therefor issued pursuant to Condition 16) at any time after such payment, but before the expiry of the period of five years from the date on which such Coupon would have become due, but not thereafter. The Paying Agent to which such Note and Change of Control Put Notice are delivered will issue to the Noteholder concerned a non-transferable receipt in respect of the Note so delivered. Payment in respect of any Note so delivered will be made on the Change of Control Put Date by transfer to the bank account duly specified in the Change of Control Put Notice. A Change of Control Put Notice, once given, shall be irrevocable. For the purposes of these Conditions, receipts issued pursuant to this Condition 7(f) shall be treated as if they were Notes.

To exercise the Change of Control Put Option, the holder of a Registered Note must deposit the Certificate evidencing such Note(s) with the Registrar or any Transfer Agent at its specified office, together with a duly signed and completed Change of Control Put Notice obtainable from the Registrar or any Transfer Agent within the Change of Control Put Period. No Certificate so deposited and option so exercised may be withdrawn without the prior consent of the Issuer. Payment in respect of any Certificate so deposited will be made on the Change of Control Put Date by transfer to the bank account duly specified in the Change of Control Put Notice.

The Issuer shall redeem or purchase (or procure the purchase of) the relevant Notes on the Change of Control Put Date unless previously redeemed (or purchased) and cancelled.

If 80 per cent. or more in principal amount of the Notes then outstanding have been redeemed or purchased pursuant to this Condition 7(f), the Issuer may, on giving not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' notice to the Noteholders (such notice being given within 30 days after the Change of Control Put Date), redeem or purchase (or procure the purchase of), at its option, all but not some only of the remaining outstanding Notes at their principal amount, together with interest accrued to (but excluding) the date fixed for such redemption or purchase.

The Trustee is under no obligation to ascertain whether a Change of Control Put Event or Change of Control or any event which could lead to the occurrence of or could constitute a Change of Control Put Event or Change of Control has occurred, and, until it shall have received written notice pursuant to the Trust Deed to the contrary, the Trustee may assume without liability that no Change of Control Put Event or Change of Control or other such event has occurred.

- (g) Purchases: The Issuer and its Subsidiaries as defined in the Trust Deed may at any time purchase Notes (provided that all unmatured Coupons and unexchanged Talons relating thereto are attached thereto or surrendered therewith) in the open market or otherwise at any price.
- (h) Cancellation: All Notes purchased by or on behalf of the Issuer or any of its Subsidiaries may be surrendered for cancellation, in the case of Bearer Notes, by surrendering each such Note together with all unmatured Coupons and all unexchanged Talons to the Issuing and Paying Agent and, in the case of Registered Notes, by surrendering the Certificate representing such Notes to the Registrar and, in each case, if so surrendered, shall, together with all Notes redeemed by the Issuer, be cancelled forthwith (together with all unmatured Coupons and unexchanged Talons attached thereto or surrendered therewith). Any Notes so surrendered for cancellation may not be reissued or resold and the obligations of the Issuer in respect of any such Notes shall be discharged.
- (i) Clean-Up Call Option: If Clean-Up Call Option is specified hereon and 80 per cent. or more in principal amount of the Notes originally issued (which shall for this purpose include any further Notes issued pursuant to Condition 17) have been redeemed (other than in accordance with Condition 7(d)) or purchased and cancelled, the Issuer may, on giving not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' notice to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 18, redeem or, at the Issuer's option, purchase (or procure the purchase of) on any Interest Payment Date (if this Note is a Floating Rate Note) or at any time (if this Note is not a Floating Rate Note), all but not some only of the Notes then outstanding at the Clean-Up Redemption Amount specified hereon together with interest accrued (if any) to (but excluding) the date fixed for redemption. The notice referred to in the preceding sentence shall be irrevocable and shall specify the date fixed for redemption.

8. Payments and Talons

- (a) Bearer Notes: Payments of principal and interest in respect of Bearer Notes shall, subject as mentioned below, be made against presentation and surrender of the relevant Notes (in the case of all payments of principal and, in the case of interest, as specified in Condition 8(f)(v)) or Coupons (in the case of interest, save as specified in Condition 8(f)(ii)), as the case may be, at the specified office of any Paying Agent outside the United States by transfer to an account denominated in the relevant currency maintained by the payee with a Bank.
- (b) Registered Notes:
 - (i) Payments of principal in respect of Registered Notes shall be made against presentation and surrender of the relevant Certificates at the specified office of any of the Transfer Agents or of the Registrar and in the manner provided in paragraph (ii) below.
 - (ii) Interest on Registered Notes shall be paid to the person shown on the Register at the close of business on the fifteenth day before the due date for payment thereof (the "Record Date"). Payments of interest on each Registered Note shall be made in the relevant currency by transfer to an account in the relevant currency maintained by the payee with a Bank.
- (c) Payments in the United States: Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any Bearer Notes are denominated in U.S. dollars, payments in respect thereof may be made at the specified office of any Paying Agent in New York City in the same manner as aforesaid if (i) the Issuer shall have appointed Paying Agents with specified offices outside the United States with the reasonable expectation that such Paying Agents would be able to make payment of the amounts on the Notes in the manner provided above when due, (ii) payment in full of such amounts at all such offices is illegal or effectively precluded by exchange controls or other similar restrictions on payment or receipt of such amounts and (iii) such payment is then permitted by United States law, without involving, in the opinion of the Issuer, any adverse tax consequence to the Issuer.

- (d) Payments subject to Laws: All payments are subject in all cases to any applicable fiscal or other laws, regulations and directives in the place of payment, but without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 9. No commission or expenses shall be charged to the Noteholders or Couponholders in respect of such payments.
- (e) Appointment of Agents: The Issuing and Paying Agent, the Paying Agents, the Registrar, the Transfer Agents and the Calculation Agent initially appointed by the Issuer and their respective specified offices are listed below. The Issuing and Paying Agent, the Paying Agents, the Registrar, the Transfer Agents and the Calculation Agent act solely as agents of the Issuer and do not assume any obligation or relationship of agency or trust for or with any Noteholder or Couponholder. The Issuer reserves the right at any time with the prior written approval of the Trustee to vary or terminate the appointment of the Issuing and Paying Agent, any other Paying Agent, the Registrar, any Transfer Agent or the Calculation Agent(s) and to appoint additional or other Paying Agents or Transfer Agents, provided that the Issuer shall at all times maintain (i) an Issuing and Paying Agent, (ii) a Registrar in relation to Registered Notes, (iii) a Transfer Agent in relation to Registered Notes and (iv) one or more Calculation Agent(s) where the Conditions so require.

In addition, the Issuer shall forthwith appoint a Paying Agent in New York City in respect of any Bearer Notes denominated in U.S. dollars in the circumstances described in paragraph (c) above.

Notice of any such change or any change of any specified office shall promptly be given by the Issuer to the Noteholders.

- (f) Unmatured Coupons and unexchanged Talons:
 - (i) Upon the due date for redemption of Bearer Notes which comprise Fixed Rate Notes, such Notes should be surrendered for payment together with all unmaturing Coupons (if any) relating thereto, failing which an amount equal to the face value of each missing unmaturing Coupon (or, in the case of payment not being made in full, that proportion of the amount of such missing unmaturing Coupon that the sum of principal so paid bears to the total principal due) shall be deducted from the Final Redemption Amount, Early Redemption Amount, Optional Redemption Amount (Call), Optional Redemption Amount or Clean-Up Redemption Amount, as the case may be, due for payment. Any amount so deducted shall be paid in the manner mentioned above against surrender of such missing Coupon within a period of 10 years from the Relevant Date for the payment of such principal (whether or not such Coupon has become void pursuant to Condition 10).
 - (ii) Upon the due date for redemption of any Bearer Note comprising a Floating Rate Note, unmaturing Coupons relating to such Note (whether or not attached) shall become void and no payment shall be made in respect of them.
 - (iii) Upon the due date for redemption of any Bearer Note, any unexchanged Talon relating to such Note (whether or not attached) shall become void and no Coupon shall be delivered in respect of such Talon.
 - (iv) Where any Bearer Note that provides that the relative unmaturing Coupons are to become void upon the due date for redemption of those Notes is presented for redemption without all unmaturing Coupons, and where any Bearer Note is presented for redemption without any unexchanged Talon relating to it, redemption shall be made only against the provision of such indemnity as the Issuer may require.

SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE NOTES WHILE IN GLOBAL FORM

1. Initial Issue of Notes

If the Global Notes or the Global Certificates are stated in the applicable Final Terms to be issued in NGN form or to be held under the NSS (as the case may be), the Global Notes or the Global Certificates will be delivered on or prior to the original issue date of the Tranche to a Common Safekeeper. Depositing the Global Notes or the Global Certificates with the Common Safekeeper does not necessarily mean that the Notes will be recognised as eligible collateral for Eurosystem monetary policy and intra-day credit operations by the Eurosystem either upon issue, or at any or all times during their life. Such recognition will depend upon satisfaction of the Eurosystem eligibility criteria.

Global Notes which are issued in CGN form and Global Certificates which are not held under the NSS may be delivered on or prior to the original issue date of the Tranche to a Common Depositary.

If the Global Note is a CGN, upon the initial deposit of a Global Note with a Common Depositary or, if the Global Certificate is not held under the NSS, registration of Registered Notes in the name of any nominee for Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg and delivery of the relative Global Certificate to the Common Depositary, Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg will credit each subscriber with a nominal amount of Notes equal to the nominal amount thereof for which it has subscribed and paid. If the Global Note is a NGN, the nominal amount of the Notes shall be the aggregate amount from time to time entered in the records of Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg. The records of such clearing system shall be conclusive evidence of the nominal amount of Notes represented by the Global Note and a statement issued by such clearing system at any time shall be conclusive evidence of the records of the relevant clearing system at that time.

Notes that are initially deposited with the Common Depositary may also be credited to the accounts of subscribers with (if indicated in the relevant Final Terms) other clearing systems through direct or indirect accounts with Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg held by such other clearing systems. Conversely, Notes that are initially deposited with any other clearing system may similarly be credited to the accounts of subscribers with Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg or other clearing systems.

2. Relationship of Accountholders with Clearing Systems

Each of the persons shown in the records of Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other permitted clearing system ("Alternative Clearing System") as the holder of a Note represented by a Global Note or a Global Certificate must look solely to Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg or any such Alternative Clearing System (as the case may be) for his share of each payment made by the Issuer to the bearer of such Global Note or the holder of the underlying Registered Notes, as the case may be, and in relation to all other rights arising under the Global Notes or Global Certificates, subject to and in accordance with the respective rules and procedures of Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg, or such Alternative Clearing System (as the case may be). Such persons shall have no claim directly against the Issuer in respect of payments due on the Notes for so long as the Notes are represented by such Global Note or Global Certificate and such obligations of the Issuer will be discharged by payment to the bearer of such Global Note or the holder of the underlying Registered Notes, as the case may be, in respect of each amount so paid.

3. Exchange

3.1 Temporary Global Notes

Each temporary Global Note will be exchangeable, free of charge to the holder, on or after its Exchange Date:

- (i) if the relevant Final Terms indicates that such Global Note is issued in compliance with TEFRA C or in a transaction to which TEFRA is not applicable (as to which, see "Overview of the Programme – Selling Restrictions"), in whole, but not in part, for the Definitive Notes defined and described below; and

- (ii) otherwise, in whole or in part upon certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership in the form set out in the Agency Agreement for interests in a permanent Global Note or, if so provided in the relevant Final Terms, for Definitive Notes.

3.2 Permanent Global Notes

Each permanent Global Note will be exchangeable, free of charge to the holder, on or after its Exchange Date in whole but not, except as provided under paragraph 3.4 below, in part for Definitive Notes if the permanent Global Note is held on behalf of Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or an Alternative Clearing System and any such clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of holidays, statutory or otherwise) or announces an intention permanently to cease business or in fact does so.

In the event that a Global Note is exchanged for Definitive Notes, such Definitive Notes shall be issued in Specified Denomination(s) only. A Noteholder who holds a principal amount of less than the minimum Specified Denomination will not receive a definitive Note in respect of such holding and would need to purchase a principal amount of Notes such that it holds an amount equal to one or more Specified Denominations.

3.3 Global Certificates

If the Final Terms state that the Notes are to be represented by a Global Certificate on issue, the following will apply in respect of transfers of Notes held in Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg or an Alternative Clearing System. These provisions will not prevent the trading of interests in the Notes within a clearing system whilst they are held on behalf of such clearing system, but will limit the circumstances in which the Notes may be withdrawn from the relevant clearing system.

Transfers of the holding of Notes represented by any Global Certificate pursuant to Condition 2(b) may only be made in part:

- (i) if the relevant clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of holidays, statutory or otherwise) or announces an intention permanently to cease business or does in fact do so; or
- (ii) if principal in respect of any Notes is not paid when due; or
- (iii) with the consent of the Issuer,

provided that, in the case of the first transfer of part of a holding pursuant to paragraph 3.3(i) or 3.3(ii) above, the Registered Holder has given the Registrar not less than 30 days' notice at its specified office of the Registered Holder's intention to effect such transfer.

3.4 Delivery of Notes

If the Global Note is a CGN, on or after any due date for exchange the holder of a Global Note may surrender such Global Note to or to the order of the Issuing and Paying Agent. In exchange for any Global Note, or the part thereof to be exchanged, the Issuer will (i) in the case of a temporary Global Note exchangeable for a permanent Global Note, deliver, or procure the delivery of, a permanent Global Note in an aggregate nominal amount equal to that of the whole or that part of a temporary Global Note that is being exchanged or, in the case of a subsequent exchange, endorse, or procure the endorsement of, a permanent Global Note to reflect such exchange or (ii) in the case of a Global Note exchangeable for Definitive Notes, deliver, or procure the delivery of, an equal aggregate nominal amount of duly executed and authenticated Definitive Notes or if the Global Note is a NGN, the Issuer will procure that details of such exchange be entered pro rata in the records of the relevant clearing system. In this Base Prospectus, "Definitive Notes" means, in relation to any Global Note, the definitive Bearer Notes for which such Global Note may be exchanged (if appropriate, having attached to them all Coupons in respect of interest that have not already been paid on the Global Note and a Talon). Definitive Notes will be security printed in accordance with any applicable legal and stock exchange requirements in or substantially in the form set out in the Schedules to the Trust Deed. On exchange in full of each permanent Global Note, the Issuer will, if the holder so requests, procure that it is cancelled and returned to the holder together with the relevant Definitive Notes.

3.5 Exchange Date

"Exchange Date" means, in relation to a temporary Global Note, the day falling after the expiry of 40 days after its issue date and, in relation to a permanent Global Note, a day falling not less than 60 days after that on which the notice requiring exchange is given and on which banks are open for business in the city in which the specified office of the Issuing and Paying Agent is located and in the city in which the relevant clearing system is located.

4. Amendment to Conditions

The temporary Global Notes, permanent Global Notes and Global Certificates contain provisions that apply to the Notes that they represent, some of which modify the effect of the terms and conditions of the Notes set out in this Base Prospectus. The following is a summary of certain of those provisions:

4.1 Payments

No payment falling due after the Exchange Date will be made on any Global Note unless exchange for an interest in a permanent Global Note or for Definitive Notes is improperly withheld or refused. Payments on any temporary Global Note issued in compliance with TEFRA D before the Exchange Date will only be made against presentation of certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership in the form set out in the Agency Agreement. The long-term obligations of the Issuer are rated BB- by S&P Global Ratings Europe Limited ("S&P") and Ba3 by Moody's Investors Service ("Moody's"). S&P and Moody's are each established in the European Union and registered under Regulation (EC) No. 1060/2009, as amended.

Sales, marketing and branding

The Group incurred sales and marketing expenses of SEK 2,160 million, (8.8 per cent. of net sales) for the year ended 31 December 2024 (as compared to SEK 2,184 million (7.9 per cent. of net sales) for the year ended 31 December 2023) and SEK 510 million (8.7 per cent. of net sales) for the three months ended 31 March 2025 (as compared to SEK 540 million (5.6 per cent. of net sales) for the three months ended 31 March 2024).

The Group sells its products in approximately 100 countries. The responsibility for sales rest in the segments organisations with the largest sales organisations in Australia, China, France, Germany, Italy, the Nordic countries, Spain, the UK and the United States.

The Group has three main go-to-market channels:

- Distribution: Installed and standalone products sold through distribution channels (physical and digital wholesalers and retailers as well as Dometic's B2C e-commerce);
- Service & Aftermarket: Products and solutions for installed and standalone products serviced through a network of independent service dealers and service providers or through Dometic's own service organisation; and
- OEM: Installed products sold to RV, boat or CPV manufacturers.

The Group markets and sells its products under one main brand, Dometic, as well as (i) Igloo, the world's largest brand of passive cooling boxes, and (ii) supporting brands providing solutions in mobile cooling, mobile cooking, mobile power as well as rest and storage.

Product management and product development

Product management ("Product Management") is a multi-disciplinary function within the Group that guides the strategic and tactical efforts of a product to ensure that a marketable product is delivered to the end user. Product Management's primary purpose is to gather market intelligence, perform customer/consumer research, and translate customer/consumer 'needs' and 'wants' into requirements. Product Management is a bridge between Sales and Product Development.

Product development ("Product Development") is a focused function within the Group responsible for generating the product or solution that meets the requirements articulated by Project Management in terms of quality, performance and cost.

In 2024, the Group's R&D costs amounted to SEK 587 million for the various business areas (equal to 2.4 per cent. of net sales), compared to SEK 591 million in 2023 (2.1 per cent. of net sales) and SEK 531 million in 2022 (1.8 per cent. of net sales). As of 31 March 2025, the Group's R&D costs amounted to SEK 151 million (equal to 2.6 per cent. of net sales) for the various business areas.

In addition to this, there are many small product improvements each year. The Group has a detailed and formal process on how to develop a product from idea to launch, called 'DPDP' (Dometic Product Development Process). All new products are required to have a separate and substantial business case that includes a multi-year plan, investment requirements and payback period. Including the development and industrialisation period, a new product usually takes 12 to 24 months to develop before it is launched in the targeted market.

The Group's patent and design portfolio contains more than 3,000 individual patents, utility models and design applications and/or granted registrations in countries all over the world. The patent strategy is to ensure that the Group is first with new innovations and has the freedom to operate versus its competitors. In recent years, there have been increased efforts with patents in order to reduce costs, increase number of inventions and improve the internal resource management.

Manufacturing / assembly

The Group operates a total of 22 manufacturing / assembly sites in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Europe, South Africa and China. The Group has actively sought to optimise its global manufacturing / assembly footprint and this has led to the closure / relocation of eight assembly sites since 2018. Four sites have been added through acquired businesses in 2021 and 2022. The Group believes that there is a continuous need to both review the global manufacturing footprint as well as improving site efficiency through LEAN and automation.

The current footprint is designed to balance customer proximity requirements with global cost benefits. For products such as air conditioners, cooling boxes, premium car board bars, generators, heaters, furnaces and sanitation, the Group has one global manufacturing site as it sees clear benefits from a global set-up. Other products such as refrigeration for RVs, awnings, air conditioners for Marine, cooking equipment and windows and doors have regional sites as proximity to the customers and flexibility is more important for these types of products. In these cases, the Group endeavours to locate manufacturing sites close to its customers in order to provide better customer service, particularly to facilitate customisation or design, delivery and after sales service. For example, the Group often integrates the OEM customers with resident engineers who sit at the customers' manufacturing and R&D sites so that the Group can customise products to meet customers' specific needs. This proximity to customers also helps to reduce transportation costs.

The majority of the Group's products are manufactured/assembled in-house. This level of vertical integration is chosen to optimise cost and efficiency. As a result of this, certain products are almost completely produced by the Group and sourced components mainly include raw materials or basic components. For these products, the Group considers itself to have high technical core competence and have a competitive manufacturing process. In other products, the scope of the manufacturing / assembly is limited to assembly and testing. Such products include sourced key components and the Group's rationale is that the supplier bases have better know-how of the manufacturing process and have a more cost-effective production of the components whereas the Group has the engineering and design know-how for the finished product.

The following table sets forth the manufacturing / assembly sites that the Group operates, including the main products which are manufactured at each site, as of 31 December 2024:

Location	Main products

Purchasing and logistics

The Group sources a wide range of materials, components and finished products on a global basis. In total, the Group uses approximately 3,400 suppliers. The Group has a global purchasing function with regional execution and the purchasing organisation reports directly to the Head of Group Operations & Sustainability. The Group's supplier footprint is spread across mainly Europe, Asia and North America, with the largest supplier origin countries being China, United States, Germany, Taiwan, Italy, Mexico, Taiwan and Canada. The Group has operational purchasing functions and warehouses in each of the 22 manufacturing / assembly sites and orders direct material from the global supplier base.

The Group has a global supply chain network and sources from suppliers in 52 countries. The majority of the supply chain network is related to components or semi-finished components as well as externally traded products (purchasing finished products designed by the Group but manufactured by third-party manufacturers). The Group's part of the OEM supply chain is set up to take on orders where the manufacturing / assembly sites deliver directly to the OEM customers with lead times of a couple of weeks (from order to delivery). The Group prepares monthly/weekly forecasts on upcoming deliveries based on customer production schedules. The Group's Service & Aftermarket supply chain is typically set up to build stock where the manufacturing / assembly sites deliver to the Group's central distribution centres, shortening lead times down to 1 to 3 days (from order to delivery, provided products are available in the distribution centres). The Group prepares yearly/monthly forecasts based on historical sales statistics and sales company inputs.

For the year ended 31 December 2024, the Group's 20 largest suppliers accounted for 28 per cent. of the total direct materials expenses (as compared to 24 per cent. for the year ended 31 December 2023). From a longer-term perspective the Group is not critically dependent on any supplier but has several key suppliers for strategic components. The Group monitors these suppliers continuously to minimise the risk of becoming heavily dependent on one supplier.

The ability to transfer increases in prices of direct materials to customers depends on the term and type of contract entered into with the customers in each business area. In general the Group includes a clause in customer contracts which enables renegotiation of prices in situations when costs levels change as a result of, for example, freight limitations, raw material price developments or currency movements. The notice period differs depending on customer type. In CPV OEM-channel long-term contracts are standard which limits the possibility to pass on price increases.

The Group has three main distribution centres for finished products: Emsdetten in Germany, and Goshen and Litchfield in the United States. In addition, the Group has a number of local warehouses in key countries across the segments to enable fast delivery of finished products to respond to local market needs. For the Igloo business and for large customers, especially in the OEM sector, the Group has direct deliveries from the manufacturing / assembly sites. The Group external logistics suppliers for ocean, truck and air transport, these suppliers are mainly managed by logistics functions regionally with some coordination and collaboration globally.

Employees

The Group is committed to ensuring that the workplaces are attractive. Key areas include creating diverse work environments and ensuring that the Group complies with its equal opportunity policy when hiring and when providing development opportunities to its employees to enable them to reach their full potential.

As of 31 December 2024, the Group had an average number of 7,558 employees (as of 31 December 2023, 8,089 employees). 63 per cent. of the Group's employees are located in China, Germany and the United States. Certain of the Issuer's subsidiaries, primarily in Europe and the United States, have entered into collective bargaining agreements with trade unions either directly or through membership of employer organisations. Most of these agreements are nationwide and locked for, on average, 3 years. The Group takes a constructive approach to union relationships where there are unionised sites and has been able to secure the co-operation in close dialogue with both unions and co-workers to create a positive and constructive work environment.

Dometic's values

The Group's values set the standards for how the Group operates and how it interacts both internally and with external parties. Four core values provide direction for the leaders and employees: "Together we build our future", "We play to win", "We embrace change" and "We walk the talk". The Group also has Group-wide Code of Conduct that applies to all employees in all entities. The Code of Conduct focuses on healthy workplaces and business conditions that are in line with international laws and regulations. To ensure compliance with its Code of Conduct, the Group has established a whistle-blower function called the 'Dometic SpeakUp Line'. It offers employees in all entities the ability to report potential misconduct in their own language. For the sake of integrity and confidentiality the whistle-blower tool is managed by an external vendor and can be reached via a free-of-charge telephone number or via the internet.

Information technology ("IT")

The Group aims to set the standard for digital channels / platforms in the mobile living industry. To succeed with its digital transformation, the Group seeks to redefine the role of IT and is in the ongoing process of establishing a Group-wide IT-architecture that utilises common platforms, focusing on a seamless information-flow. The Group's efforts and priorities are focused on the following four areas:

- Global Enterprise Resource Planning ("ERP") & Customer Relationship Management ("CRM") platforms – common business operating model & integrated global supply chain;
- Collaboration platform – to create an efficient and mobile organisation that enables data driven decision making;
- E-commerce / Order Handling – to create efficiency, customer intimacy and new sales channels; and
- Internet Of Things / Smart Products – redefining the role of IT in product development with focus on customer experience and new revenue streams.

Intellectual property

The Group holds a large number of trademarks, domain names, utility models, registered designs and patents, which are of importance for product development and to maintain competitiveness. The Group's patent and design portfolio contains more than 3,000 individual patents, utility models and design applications and/or granted registrations in countries all over the world. The management of the Group believes that it is the broad scope of the portfolio that is of importance from a strategic and competitive perspective.

The Group markets and sells its products under one main global brand, Dometic, as well as other global brands such as Igloo. As a result of the acquisition of SeaStar in 2017 and Kampa in December 2018, SeaStar, Kampa were added to the portfolio along with a number of other secondary tradenames. The acquisitions of Twin Eagles, Enerdrive, Frontrunner, Valterra, Büttner Zampsolar, Cadac and NDS Energy added new brands to the portfolio. These will initially be double branded. The exception is the acquisition of Igloo, where the existing Igloo brand will remain.

The Group is the holder of approximately 1,700 trademark registrations or pending applications, as well as approximately 250 active domain name registrations including dometicgroup.com, dometicgroup.se and mobicool.com. The Group has an established trademark and domain name policy pursuant to which the Group focuses on already existing trademarks and does not normally register slogans, product names and feature names.

Since 2009, the Group has strived towards a centralised organisation for the administration of intellectual property rights where the ownership of intellectual property rights has been allocated to Dometic Sweden AB. Dometic Sweden AB shall hold and control the development, enhancement, maintenance and protection of the intellectual property rights of the Group. As a result, the majority, but not all, of the Group's intellectual property rights have been transferred from Group companies to Dometic Sweden AB. In addition to the internal efforts, the Group uses external patent/intellectual property attorneys in several countries, such as United States, Germany, Italy, China, Australia and Sweden, to assist it with maintenance and registrations.

In connection with the intellectual property rights transfers, limited re-registrations of the Group's registered intellectual property rights have been made. Due to cost efficiency, Group companies remain the registered holder of such registrations and in the event a registration is subject to a dispute, the registration will be re-registered to Dometic Sweden AB. Therefore, while certain existing intellectual property rights owned by Group companies are not necessarily recorded in the relevant registries in the name of Dometic Sweden AB, beneficial ownership of most Group intellectual property (Igloo and Seastar being the main exceptions) nevertheless remains with Dometic Sweden AB. All new registrations (other than Igloo and Seastar related registrations) are made with Dometic Sweden AB as registered holder.

In quantitative terms, trademarks on the balance sheet as at 31 December 2024, defined as the allocation of cost of acquisition over the fair value of the acquired brands, comprise 18 per cent. of total intangible fixed assets.

Insurance

Where possible and cost attractive, the Group has arranged for Group wide insurance to cover the Group. Certain types of insurance (for example, car insurance) are, however, difficult or impossible to arrange centrally and in those cases local insurance policies have been arranged in line with the Group insurance policies. Mandatory policies, such as worker's compensation and automobile liability, are purchased locally and comply with local laws and regulations.

The Group's insurance includes policies for the Issuer and its subsidiaries, and covers (i) general product liability, (ii) product recalls, (iii) property and business interruption, (iv) crime, (v) marine cargo, (vi) directors and officers liability and (vii) employment practice liability, which are provided by a variety of Swedish and international insurers. As mentioned, the Group assesses that the Group's insurance coverage is in line with the coverage held by other companies in the sector and that the insurance coverage is adequate for the risks normally associated with the Group's business. However, there can be no guarantee that the Group would not suffer losses that are not covered by the Group's insurance. See also "Risk factors – Risks related to the Group – Design or manufacturing defects in the Group's products or other defects may cause the Group to incur material costs and/or reputational issues as a result of product liability or warranty claims or related to recalls or reworks".

Regulation

Environment

The Group's operations routinely involve the handling of significant amounts of chemical substances, some of which are classified as hazardous and subject the Group to significant environmental regulations. Chemicals used, currently and historically, at the majority of the Group's manufacturing / assembly sites include solvents/degreasing agents, cooling agents (for filling of air conditioners and refrigerators) and PU-foam components. Solvents used for degreasing are currently mainly alkaline and phosphorous based. However, some chemicals, which are classified as hazardous, are of greater concern from an environmental perspective and have been in use, and are still in use, in a number of facilities. An example of this is chromate, which is used in the Group's absorption refrigerators.

The phase out of this substance commenced in 2020 and continues product group by product group, where the minibars produced in Jaszbereny for sales in the EU were the first to phase out completely. The amount of chromate used has also been greatly reduced due to a transition towards other cooling technologies (mainly compressor).

Cooling agents have also been under more scrutiny for climate reasons. Dometic is very involved in this development and is continuously following legislation to ensure compliance.

The Group is subject to a number of European Union, national, regional, state and local laws and regulations on a wide range of environmental, occupational safety and health, nuisance, zoning, land use and other regulatory matters.

The Group's operations require it to maintain certain environmental permits for the production of its products, including, air emissions permits, stormwater permits, wastewater discharge permits, hazardous waste handling and disposal permits, and chemicals handling and storage permits. In addition, the Group's production units have generally been certified according to ISO9001 Quality Management System and ISO14001 Environmental Management System.

Compliance matters are handled centrally through the adoption of guidelines and establishment of standards and principles and locally by each respective Group company responsible for implementation, follow up and handling of day-to-day matters. See also "Risk factors - The Group is subject to stringent environmental laws and other regulations, and the violation of, or the cost of compliance with, such laws and regulations could have a material adverse effect on the Group's operations and cash flows".

Product safety

The Group operates in many markets across the world and its products are subject to a number of regulatory standards relating to both the product design and production. These include legislation relating to restricted substances, testing of gas appliances (global) and electrical safety (global). In addition, the Group's products are often found in the interface between various legislations depending on their classification which may also differ in different countries. As a consequence, there may be overlapping requirements that may create challenges for the Group to place its products in the market. Furthermore, the legislative landscape is constantly changing and due to its global operations several non-harmonised rules could apply. The Group closely monitors the development of the legislative landscape to ensure that it is aware of upcoming changes. To meet these challenges, the Group has increased its efforts to closely monitor ongoing matters, implemented specific software for more stringent follow up and engaged external consultants for deeper knowledge around more complex requirements. Product compliance is an integral part of the business and is managed on a Group level, by the Dometic Compliance Board as well as and on regional and local level by Compliance Managers.

Health and safety

The Group works continuously to safeguard a healthy and safe work environment for all employees. The Dometic Health and Safety (H&S) Guideline is a key component of the factory management systems and aims to ensure a common high standard across the Group. Another component of the factory management systems is the Dometic Loss Prevention Guideline (DLPG), which is designed to guide the Group's production sites on safety and security measures to reduce risk, ensure compliance with industry practices, and maintain high standards for safety, quality and delivery. Occupational health and safety management system standards, such as ISO 45001, comprise a third component of the factory management systems for selected sites. In 2023, the Group's on-site audit programme was resumed with third-party assessments with three additional sites receiving ISO 45001 certification. The Marine segment plans to complete certification for all sites by the end of 2025. To ensure awareness among employees, the Group provides a H&S learning programme to all factory employees. In addition, emergency preparedness drills were carried out to prepare employees for unexpected events.

In 2024, the focus continued to be on risk identification, mitigation and elimination, through strengthening local procedures in line with the H&S Guideline. The organisation has been strengthened with more local and regional environment, health and safety (EHS) resources supporting the Group's operations. The goal is to provide a healthy and safe work environment for all employees. To track the progress, the Group uses two key performance indicators (KPIs). The first KPI is the global H&S index which is based on the biennial employee survey. The employee survey guides the development of local measures and initiatives for improvement and tracks employee favourable responses to H&S initiatives. In 2023, the Group employee survey yielded a 76 per cent. favourable response from employees. The second KPI relates to safety procedures. These efforts are tracked through the lost time injury frequency rate (the "LTIFR"). In 2024, the LTIFR was 2.2 (1.7), and better than the baseline of 2.4. The increase compared to the year before was due to less total worked hours in the company, as a result of significantly fewer full time employees. Efforts focusing on injury prevention continue throughout the organisation to stay below the target of 2.0. The Group is currently establishing a company-wide H&S incident reporting system (AFA IA system). The system has enabled the Group to further learn from events that do occur and promote an open climate where reporting of incidents, accidents or other events or risks is a natural part of efforts to constantly improve.

Litigation and arbitration

At any given time, the Group may be party to litigation or subject to non-litigated claims arising out of the normal operation of its business, such as ordinary warranty claims, claims related to products delayed in transport, other product claims (such as claims that the Group has provided products that do not meet specifications), and claims from employees related to work injury or wrongful dismissal. Save as described below, the Group does not expect any liability arising from any of the claims or litigations to have a material impact on the Group's results of operations, liquidity, capital resources or financial position. The outcome of legal proceedings, however, can be extremely difficult to predict with certainty, and the Group can offer no assurances in this regard. For further information, see "Risk factors – The Group is exposed to the risk of litigation, investigations and other proceedings".

ACON Igloo Holdings LLC, the seller of Igloo ("ACON"), filed a lawsuit against Dometic in the fourth quarter of 2022, making certain claims related to the Stock Purchase Agreement ("SPA"). Dometic is confident that the lawsuit lacks any merit, is vehemently contesting this lawsuit and has filed counterclaims against ACON related to its conduct under, and non-compliance with, the SPA. The parties have completed the discovery process, which underscored the lack of merit to ACON's claims. Mediation between ACON and Dometic is currently scheduled for July 2025. Should the matter not resolve at mediation, trial is expected to take place in September 2025.

Recall-related class actions: There are currently five duplicate class actions pertaining to the recall Igloo recently conducted on its 90 QT coolers. The cases, which are each brought on behalf of state and nationwide classes, allege that the recall was inadequate and that the recalled coolers are worth less than consumers paid. Igloo intends to vigorously defend itself against the allegations and denies any wrongdoing.

Marketing-related class actions: There are currently two related class actions pertaining to various Igloo-brand coolers marketed as biodegradable, made from recyclable materials, and/or made in the USA. The cases, which are each brought on behalf of state and nationwide classes, allege that these representations are false and that consumers wrongly paid a premium price as a result of the allegedly false representations. Igloo intends to vigorously defend itself against the allegations and denies any wrongdoing.

Corporate governance

Corporate governance in the Group is based on the Swedish Companies Act, the Swedish Annual Accounts Act, the Nordic Main Market Rulebook for Issuers of Shares and the Swedish Corporate Governance Code (the "Code"), and other applicable Swedish and foreign laws, rules and regulations as well as internal regulations in terms of the Group's governing documents. The Code is published on the website of the Swedish Corporate Governance Board, which administers the Code: www.corporategovernanceboard.se.

The Code applies to all Swedish companies with shares listed on a regulated market in Sweden. The Issuer is not obliged to comply with every rule in the Code as the Code itself provides for the possibility to deviate from the rules, provided that any such deviations and the chosen alternative solutions are described, and the reasons therefore are explained in the corporate governance report (according to the so-called "comply or explain principle").

Shareholders' meeting

Pursuant to the Swedish Companies Act ((2005:551) (Sw. aktiebolagslagen)), the shareholders' meeting is the Issuer's ultimate decision-making body and the shareholders exercise their voting rights at such meetings. At the annual shareholders' meeting, shareholders have the opportunity to ask questions about the Issuer and the Group and the results for the past year. The annual shareholders' meeting of the Issuer is held in Stockholm, Sweden, usually in April or May.

Participation in decision-making requires the shareholder's presence at the meeting, either personally or through a proxy.

Board of directors

The Board is the second-highest decision-making body of the Issuer after the shareholders' meeting and the highest executive body of the Issuer. According to the Swedish Companies Act, the Board is responsible for the organisation of the Issuer and the management of the Issuer's affairs, which means that the Board is responsible for, among other things, making decisions concerning major investments and operational changes, setting targets and establishing strategies, securing routines and systems for evaluation of such targets, continuously assessing the financial condition and profits as well as evaluating the operating management. The Board is also responsible for ensuring that annual reports and interim reports are prepared in a timely manner. Moreover, the Board appoints the CEO. The chairman of the Board has a leading role and is responsible for ensuring that the Board's work is well organised and performed efficiently.

Members of the Board are elected by the annual shareholders' meeting for the period until the end of the next annual shareholders' meeting. According to the Issuer's Articles of Association, the members of the Board elected by the shareholders' meeting shall be not less than three and not more than eight members with not more than three deputy members. The chairman of the Board is elected by the annual shareholders' meeting and shall have a special responsibility for leading the work of the Board and for ensuring that the work of the Board is efficiently organised.

The Board consists of seven ordinary members, including the chairman of the Board, with no deputy members, all of whom are elected for the period up until the end of the annual shareholders' meeting 2026.

Internal control and Risk Management

Internal control's financial reporting within the Group is designed, in line with the generally accepted COSO framework,¹ to ensure reliable financial reporting. In addition to financial reporting, internal control procedures support the organisation in managing identified risks and processes within the organisation. The Group has developed an internal system for internal control with control functions, such as financial and business control, functions for quality control, internal control and internal audit, in line with the generally accepted three lines of responsibility model.

Internal audit

The Group's internal audit function is governed and led by the Head of Internal Audit and Internal Control with segment Internal Auditors in each segment. The Head of Internal Audit reports to the chairman of the audit committee and to the Chief Financial Officer ("CFO"). The function has a risk-based and dynamic approach, where besides providing reasonable assurance of the effectiveness of the corporate governance, risk management and internal control, it seeks to add value to the operations by identifying weaknesses that can lead to non-compliance with the Group's policies and guidelines, unexpected losses and inefficiency. Internal audit reports quarterly to the audit committee.

The Group uses segment internal audit plans based on the outcome of the annual global and segment risk assessments to secure internal audit targeting and input from segment senior management to capture business needs. Since 2017, internal audits have been conducted systematically in line with a defined internal audit process that includes several steps resulting in formal internal audit reports and follow up on agreed actions. Internal audit plans are presented by the Head of Internal Audit and approved by the audit committee. The Group's internal audit policy is approved by the Board and a global internal audit instruction is guiding how internal audit shall be performed in each region.

Audit committee

The Group has an audit committee consisting of three members: Peter Sjölander (chairman), Fredrik Cappelen and Jacqueline Hoogerbrugge. The audit committee shall, without it affecting the responsibilities and tasks of the Board, monitor the Group's financial reporting, monitor the effectiveness of the Group's internal controls, internal auditing and risk management, keep informed of the auditing of the annual report and the consolidated accounts, review and monitor the impartiality and independence of the auditors and pay close attention to whether the auditors are providing other services besides audit services for the Group, and assist in the preparation of proposals for the shareholders' meeting's decision on election of auditors.

Control environment

The control environment at the Group constitutes the framework for the direction and culture communicated to the organisation by the Board and Group Management. Internal guidance and control in accordance with established frameworks is a part of the management work. The Board and Group Management define and formulate decision-making channels, authority and responsibility which are communicated throughout the organisation. The Board also strives to ensure that governance documents, such as internal policies and guidelines, cover identified and significant areas, and that they provide proper guidance for the relevant employees in the Group.

Risk assessment

Risk management within the Group comprise a risk framework including a risk management process and a risk universe for identification, assessment, and prioritisation of risks, and for providing risk response i.e. risk mitigating actions as well as effective monitoring. The risk universe is a universe of risks that could impact the Group's ability to achieve established strategic and other objectives including financial targets as well as to achieve objectives of internal control over financial reporting (i.e. to provide reasonable assurance of the accurate, reliable and relevant external financial reporting, that is prepared in accordance with laws, accounting standards and other requirements applicable to listed companies).

The Group has a Risk Committee which comprises the members of Group Management. Strategic risks are assessed top-down by Group Management, while execution, compliance and regulatory and reporting risks are assessed bottom-up by Regional Management and process and risk owners, as well as top down by Group Management and global process and risk owners, as applicable. The Risk Committee discusses and makes decisions on risk mitigating actions and the members of Group Management act as global process and risk owners as applicable. The work of the Risk Committee is regularly reported to the Audit Committee and annually to the Board of Directors.

Control activities

The Group maintains a comprehensive financial reporting system which enables comprehensive monitoring of Group performance. Financial reports for the different legal entities and regions are reviewed on a continuous basis by the central finance function. This entails a thorough monitoring of the financial results in accordance with the financial reporting calendar for the financial year.

Financial data is reported by approximately eighty reporting units and the CFO as well as other representatives of the central finance function meet the region managers and review the region's results every month in accordance with the routines for reporting that are stipulated in the Group's finance manual. These reports are the basis for the Group's consolidated financial reporting.

Business reviews are carried out on a quarterly basis, where the CEO, the CFO and relevant representatives of the central functions meet the management of the respective region to discuss the business.

The product portfolio is reviewed on a monthly and quarterly basis as part of the internal process for product development. Larger projects are reviewed at least on a quarterly basis.

The Group has implemented an internal control framework, so called Minimum Internal Control Requirements ("MICR"), which covers nine key processes (entity level controls, purchase to pay, production, inventory, order to cash, payroll, fixed assets, financial closing and sustainability). The MICR framework was rolled-out in 2016 and further developed during 2017-2020. In 2020 the IT MICR key process (local entities and global IT) was added to the MICR internal control framework followed in 2023 with the addition of the sustainability process. MICR self-assessments are conducted on entity level. MICR is supported by segment Internal Control Coordinators and evaluated by the Head of Internal Audit and Internal Control. The testing of the MICR self-assessments on selected legal entities and for selected controls, performed by the Segment Internal Control Coordinators and the Internal Audit function, which started in 2021 has continued in the following years.

Description of alternative performance measures

This section provides further information relating to alternative performance measures ("APMs") for the purposes of the guidelines (the "Guidelines") published by the European Securities and Markets Authority ("ESMA"). Certain of the financial measures included in the "Description of the Group" above can be characterised as APMs and we set out below a summary of the APM used, the definition, bases of calculation and reconciliation of such APMs and the rationale for their inclusion.

The Issuer believes that the presentation of these APMs is helpful to investors because these and other similar measures are used by certain investors as supplemental measures of performance and liquidity. However, these measures are not measures of financial performance under IFRS and should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for operating profit, cash flow from operating activities or other financial measures of the Group's results of operations or liquidity computed in accordance with IFRS. Other companies, including those in the Group's industry, may calculate these measures differently from the Group. As all companies do not calculate such measures in the same manner, the presentation of these measures pertaining to the Group may not be comparable to other similarly titled measures of other companies.

TAXATION

The following summaries do not purport to be a comprehensive description of all tax considerations that could be relevant for Noteholders. These summaries are intended as general information only and each prospective Noteholders should consult a professional tax adviser with respect to the tax consequences of an investment in the Notes. These summaries are based on tax legislation and published case law in force as of the date of this document. They do not take into account any developments or amendments thereof after that date, whether or not such developments or amendments have retroactive effect.

Taxation in the Kingdom of Sweden

The following summary outlines certain Swedish tax consequences relating to holders of Notes. The summary is based on the laws of the Kingdom of Sweden as currently in effect and is intended to provide general information only. The summary does not address, inter alia, situations where the Notes are held in an investment savings account (Sw. investeringssparkonto) or the rules regarding reporting obligations for, among others, payers of interest. Investors should consult their professional tax advisers regarding the Swedish tax and other tax consequences (including the applicability and effect of tax treaties for the avoidance of double taxation) of acquiring, owning and disposing of Notes in their particular circumstances.

Holders not tax resident in the Kingdom of Sweden

Payments of any principal amount or any amount that is considered to be interest for Swedish tax purposes to a holder of Notes should not be subject to Swedish income tax, provided that such a holder (i) is not resident in the Kingdom of Sweden for Swedish tax purposes and (ii) does not have a permanent establishment in the Kingdom of Sweden to which the Notes are effectively connected.

Swedish withholding tax, or Swedish tax deduction, is not imposed on payments of any principal amount or any amount that is considered to be interest for Swedish tax purposes, except for certain payments of interest (and other return on Notes) to a private individual (or an estate of a deceased individual) who is (or was) resident in Sweden for Swedish tax purposes (see "Holders tax resident in the Kingdom of Sweden" below).

Holders tax resident in the Kingdom of Sweden

In general, for Swedish corporations and private individuals (and estates of deceased individuals) with residence in the Kingdom of Sweden for Swedish tax purposes, all capital income (for example, income that is considered to be interest for Swedish tax purposes and capital gains on Notes) will be taxable. Specific tax consequences may be applicable to certain categories of corporations, for example life insurance companies. Moreover, specific tax consequences may be applicable if, and to the extent that, a holder of Notes realises a capital loss on a Note and to any currency exchange gains or losses.

If amounts that are deemed as interest for Swedish tax purposes are paid by a legal entity domiciled in the Kingdom of Sweden, including a Swedish branch, or in certain cases a clearing institution within the EEA, to a private individual (or an estate of a deceased individual) with residence in the Kingdom of Sweden for Swedish tax purposes, Swedish preliminary taxes are normally withheld by such legal entity on such payments. Swedish preliminary taxes should normally also be withheld on other returns on Notes (but not capital gains), if the return is paid out together with such a payment of interest referred to above.

FATCA

Pursuant to certain provisions of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, commonly known as FATCA, a "foreign financial institution" may be required to withhold on certain payments it makes ("foreign passthru payments") to persons that fail to meet certain certification, reporting, or related requirements. The Issuer is a foreign financial institution for these purposes. A number of jurisdictions (including Sweden) have entered into, or have agreed in substance to, intergovernmental agreements with the United States to implement FATCA ("IGAs"), which modify the way in which FATCA applies in their jurisdictions. Certain aspects of the application of the FATCA provisions and IGAs to instruments such as the Notes, including whether withholding would ever be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as the Notes, are uncertain and may be subject to change. Even if withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as the Notes, proposed regulations have been issued that provide that such withholding would not apply prior to the date that is two years after the date on which final regulations defining "foreign passthru payments" are published in the U.S. Federal Register. In the preamble to the proposed regulations, the U.S. Treasury Department indicated that taxpayers may rely on these proposed regulations until the issuance of final regulations. Additionally, Notes characterised as debt (or which are not otherwise characterised as equity and have a fixed term) for U.S. federal tax purposes that are issued on or prior to the date that is six months after the date on which final regulations defining "foreign passthru payments" are filed with the U.S. Federal Register generally would be "grandfathered" for purposes of FATCA withholding unless materially modified after such date (including by reason of a substitution of the Issuer). However, if additional notes (as described under "Terms and Conditions of the Notes—Further Issues") that are not distinguishable from previously issued Notes are issued after the expiration of the grandfathering period and are subject to withholding under FATCA, then withholding agents may treat all Notes, including the Notes offered prior to the expiration of the grandfathering period, as subject to withholding under FATCA. Holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding how these rules may apply to their investment in the Notes. In the event any withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on the Notes, the Issuer will not be required to pay additional amounts as a result of the withholding.

SUBSCRIPTION AND SALE

Summary of Dealer Agreement

Subject to the terms and on the conditions contained in a dealer agreement dated 13 June 2025 (the "Dealer Agreement") between the Issuer, the Permanent Dealers and the Arranger, the Notes will be offered on a continuous basis by the Issuer to the Permanent Dealers. However, the Issuer has reserved the right to sell Notes directly on its own behalf to Dealers that are not Permanent Dealers. The Notes may be resold at prevailing market prices, or at prices related thereto, at the time of such resale, as determined by the relevant Dealer. The Notes may also be sold by the Issuer through the Dealers, acting as agents of the Issuer. The Dealer Agreement also provides for Notes to be issued in syndicated Tranches that are jointly and severally underwritten by two or more Dealers.

The Issuer will pay each relevant Dealer a commission as agreed between them in respect of Notes subscribed by it. The Issuer has agreed to reimburse the Arranger for its expenses incurred in connection with the establishment of the Programme and the Dealers for certain of their activities in connection with the Programme.

The Issuer has agreed to indemnify the Dealers against certain liabilities in connection with the offer and sale of the Notes. The Dealer Agreement entitles the Dealers to terminate any agreement that they make to subscribe Notes in certain circumstances prior to payment for such Notes being made to the Issuer.

Selling Restrictions

United States

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons except in certain transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by Regulation S under the Securities Act ("Regulation S").

Notes in bearer form having a maturity of more than one year are subject to U.S. tax law requirements and may not be offered, sold or delivered within the United States or its possessions or to a United States person, except in certain transactions permitted by U.S. Treasury regulations. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by the U.S. Internal Revenue Code and regulations thereunder.

Each Dealer has represented and agreed that, except as permitted by the Dealer Agreement, it has not offered, sold or delivered and will not offer, sell or deliver the Notes of any identifiable Tranche (i) as part of their distribution at any time or (ii) otherwise until 40 days after completion of the distribution of such Tranche as determined, and certified to the Issuer, by the Issuing and Paying Agent, or in the case of Notes issued on a syndicated basis, the Lead Manager, within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons, and it will have sent to each dealer to which it sells Notes during the distribution compliance period a confirmation or other notice setting forth the restrictions on offers and sales of the Notes within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by Regulation S.

In addition, until 40 days after the commencement of the offering of the Notes, an offer or sale of Notes within the United States by any dealer (whether or not participating in the offering) may violate the registration requirements of the Securities Act.

Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors

Unless the Final Terms in respect of any Notes specifies the "Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors" as "Not Applicable", each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that it has not offered, sold or otherwise made available and will not offer, sell or otherwise make available any Notes which are the subject of the offering contemplated by this Base Prospectus as completed by the Final Terms in relation thereto to any retail investor in the EEA. For the purposes of this provision, the expression "retail investor" means a person who is one (or more) of the following:

- (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/97 (as amended or superseded, the "Insurance Distribution Directive"), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of EU MiFID II.

Prohibition of Sales to UK Retail Investors

Unless the Final Terms in respect of any Notes specifies the "Prohibition of Sales to UK Retail Investors" as "Not Applicable", each Dealer has represented and agreed, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to represent and agree, that it has not offered, sold or otherwise made available and will not offer, sell or otherwise make available any Notes which are the subject of the offering contemplated by this Base Prospectus as completed by the Final Terms in relation thereto to any retail investor in the UK. For the purposes of this provision, the expression "retail investor" means a person who is one (or more) of the following:

- (iii) it has complied and will comply with all applicable provisions of the FSMA with respect to anything done by it in relation to any Notes in, from or otherwise involving the UK.

Japan

The Notes have not been and will not be registered under the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act of Japan (Act No. 25 of 1948, as amended, the "FIEA") and, accordingly, each Dealer has represented and agreed that has not, directly or indirectly, offered or sold and will not, directly or indirectly, offer or sell any Notes in Japan or to, or for the benefit of, any resident of Japan or to others for re-offering or resale, directly or indirectly, in Japan or to any resident of Japan, except pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of, and otherwise in compliance with, the FIEA and other relevant laws and regulations of Japan. As used in this paragraph, "resident of Japan" means any person resident in Japan, including any corporation or other entity organised under the laws of Japan.

No representation is made that any action has been taken in any jurisdiction that would permit a public offering of any of the Notes, or possession or distribution of the Base Prospectus or any other offering material or any Final Terms, in any country or jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required.

Each Dealer has agreed that it shall, to the best of its knowledge, comply with all relevant laws, regulations and directives in each jurisdiction in which it purchases, offers, sells or delivers Notes or has in its possession or distributes the Base Prospectus, any other offering material or any Final Terms therefore in all cases at its own expense.

FORM OF FINAL TERMS

The form of Final Terms that will be issued in respect of each Tranche, subject only to the deletion of non-applicable provisions, is set out below:

[EU MIFID II product governance / Professional investors and ECPs only target market – Solely for the purposes of [the/each] manufacturer's product approval process, the target market assessment in respect of the Notes has led to the conclusion that: (i) the target market for the Notes is eligible counterparties and professional clients only, each as defined in Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended or superseded, "EU MiFID II"); and (ii) all channels for distribution of the Notes to eligible counterparties and professional clients are appropriate. [Consider any negative target market]. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a "distributor") should take into consideration the manufacturer['s/s'] target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to EU MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the manufacturer['s/s'] target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.]
