PRESS RELEASE

Dometic introduces its first inflatable full-caravan awning, Dometic Residence

Düsseldorf, Germany – August 27, 2022

Dometic announces its first inflatable awning that covers the entire side of the caravan. Combining traditional full awning internal space with innovative Air Frame technology, the Dometic Residence AIR All-Season is easy to pitch, offers spacious room for socializing, extra room for outdoor furniture, bikes or other sports gear at any time of year.

The full-size awning easily doubles the amount of undercover space available on-site. Designed for long stays where caravanners need extra room for outdoor furniture, bikes or other outdoor leisure gear to withstand the weather and retain privacy.

Dometic introduces its first full inflatable caravan awning Dometic Residence AIR All-Season by combining traditional full awning internal space with its innovative Air Frame technology.

The Dometic Residence AIR All-Season covers the entire side of the caravan with easy set-up and offers spacious protected room and comes with a wide selection of zipped window blinds and other components.

Built to last, the breathable, polycotton Weathershield All-Season material construction makes this awning extremely resistant to inclement weather all year around and makes it suitable for long site stays at any time of year.

Available in six sizes to cover overall awning rail lengths from 950 cm - 1100 cm, the Dometic Residence awning boasts an integrated inflatable canopy, zipped external window blinds and removable front and side panels.

The Dometic Residence awnings are available in EMEA market from Q1 2023.
