PRESS RELEASE

Dometic unveils its Spring 2023 collection at OutDoor by ISPO

Munich, Germany – June 9, 2022

OutDoor by ISPO is an international industry event where trade visitors come to discover future products and collections from a multitude of global brands. This year Dometic will be unveiling its 2023 collection which includes the launch of an exciting new range of outdoor leisure products.

- Portable Cooling
- Mobile Kitchen
- Shelter
- Outdoor drinkware
- Dometic GO

Highlights from the Dometic outdoor collection at ISPO OutDoor include:

Dometic CFX3

The ultimate electric powered cooling box with impressive cooling/freezing performance. The CFX3's robust design is built for tough outdoor use. Whilst its mobile app brings full control of the unit to your fingertips alongside multiple power sources options (AC or DC, 12V & solar panel)

Inflatable roof-top tent

This new inflatable roof top tent comes with a high-performance 12V pump, can be set up in just minutes and is incredibly compact thanks to its bi-fold design. Providing comfort for both cold and warmer climates the tent is constructed from condensation reducing breathable technical cotton with mesh windows throughout.

Themed "Celebrating the Outdoors" Dometic will be showcasing its 2023 spring products at OutDoor by ISPO over two separate exhibition spaces. One located in Hall 4 (206) and the other in the Hang Out area (an open area outside).
