

DOMETIC LIST OF RESTRICTED SUBSTANCES© – REV. 2021-08-18

#	Sub-group of substances	Specification and links	Remark
A	Substances banned in several product specific legislation such as EU RoHS, China RoHS, ELV and several others	EU RoHS Annex II (ECHA version):	Presence of substances shall be reported to Dometic even if concentration level is under the legislative threshold value or if the article benefits from a specific exemption in the legislation.
B	Refrigerants restricted by the Montreal Protocol	For ozone depletion substances: Annex A of the Montreal Protocol Annex B of the Montreal Protocol Annex C of the Montreal Protocol  For F-gases: Annex F of the Montreal Protocol
C	Substances restricted under Reach Annex XVII	Reach Annex XVII	Presence of substances shall be reported to Dometic independently of the restricted use conditions under Annex XVII.
D	Conflict Minerals and similar	Minerals and metals of tin, tungsten, tantalum, gold and cobalt	Articles (and their materials) containing these minerals shall be reported to Dometic independently if the smelters are known or not.
E	Reach Candidate List of SVHC	ECHA candidate list	Presence of substances shall be reported to Dometic even if the known concentration level is under the threshold value of 0,1% in an article.
F	California Proposition 65	OEHHA, Proposition 65 Law and Regulations	Presence of substances shall be reported to Dometic even for other application than those specifically mentioned in the legislation.
Z	Dometic specific substances	Currently no substances	